REGULÆ GENERALES.

THE following Rules are hereby established, for the despatch of business in the Supreme Court, during the year 1890.

TERMS, HOLIDAYS, SITTINGS, AND VACATIONS.

1. The Terms, Holidays, Vacations, Circuits, and Sittings of the Court shall be those mentioned in the Law Almanac annexed hereto.

ADDITIONAL DAYS FOR DEMURRERS, AND SPECIAL CASES.

2. Demurrers and Special Cases may be heard on such additional days as two Judges shall appoint.

EQUITY, BANKRUPTCY, ECCLESIASTICAL, AND DIVORCE APPEALS.

3 Equity, Bankruptcy, Ecclesiastical, and Divorce Appeals may be set down for, and will take precedence, on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the second and of each alternate week during Term. Appeals in interlocutory motions in these jurisdictions may, in case of emergency, be heard on any Tuesday or Friday in Term.

4. The Chief Judge in Equity will sit for the hearing of Causes on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, at 11 o'clock; for the hearing of Motions and Petitions on Monday and Wednesday, from 10 to 11 o'clock; in Chambers, for Chamber applications, on Tuesday, from 10 to 11 o'clock; for Lunacy matters, on Thursday, from 10 to 11 o'clock; and for Motions, Petitions, adjourned Summonses, Decrees on further directions, Motions for Decree, Demurrers, Special Cases, Short Causes, and other similar matters, on Friday, from 11 o'clock.

5. Applications for Probates and Letters of Administration and other non-contentious Ecclesiastical matters will be taken by the Judge in Bankruptcy on Monday and Wednesday from 10 o'clock. All other Ecclesiastical matters will be taken by the Chief Judge in Equity at such times as he shall appoint.

SETTING DOWN CAUSES AT LAW.

6. To the extent limited for each day as next mentioned, Causes shall be set down consecutively only. No more than four Causes shall be set down for any day for Trial by a Jury of four persons, nor more than two Causes for Trial by a Special Jury, or three Causes by a Common Jury: Provided that an additional number of Causes, not exceeding two, may be set down for any day, if the Prothonotary shall see fit.

7. For each day of the Sittings for Causes there shall be three separate Cause Lists, which will be taken respectively in No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3 Jury Courts. And until all Lists have been filled, in accordance with the preceding Rule, no Cause shall (except by leave of the Prothonotary, approved of in writing by a Judge) be set down in any List for any subsequent day.

JURIES OF TWELVE.

8. Provided that Causes for Trial by Juries of Twelve (whether Special or Common Jurors) shall be set down for such days only as the Prothonotary shall in each case direct.

CAUSES UNCONCLUDED DURING THE SITTINGS.

9. Any Cause, not concluded on the last day of the Sittings, may be continued on such day or days as the Presiding Judge shall think fit.

TRANSFERRING CAUSES.

10. Causes, on the List of any Court, may be transferred to the List of any other, by order of a Judge, for Trial on the day next but one following, or any later day : Provided that no such day shall be earlier than that for which the Cause was first entered.

REMANETS GENERALLY.

11. Remanets from any Sitting shall have precedence over other Causes ; and shall be set down by the Prothonotary, each according to its appropriate List, for the next Sittings.

CAUSES ON CIRCUIT.

12. Causes for Trial in the Circuit Courts, respectively, shall be entered for the day fixed for holding the Circuit in the Law Almanac annexed hereto. But whenever it shall appear to the Chief Justice, or to the Judge intending to hold any Circuit Court, that it will not be convenient to hear the Civil Causes (if any) set down for trial at that Court on the day named for such Causes in the Calendar for the time being, it shall be competent to the Chief Justice or to such Judge, not less than sixteen days before the day which shall have been fixed by the Calendar for opening the said Court, to appoint some other day for the trial of such Causes, by direction to the Prothonotary, and the Prothonotary shall thereupon forthwith give notice of such appointment to the Solicitors in the said Causes or to their town agents, and also to the Sheriff, so that the Civil Jury may be summoned or receive notification accordingly, and all notices already given between the parties shall hold good and be applied to the day so specially appointed, and all notices and subpoenas to be thereafter given or issued shall be given or issued for that day.

13. If there shall be no Civil Causes set down and notice of trial given and notified to the Prothonotary for any Circuit Court, up to the sixteenth day before the day named in the Calendar for the time being for the trial of Civil Causes thereat, no jury shall be summoned to such Court for the trial of Civil Issues without the leave of a Judge, and it shall be the duty of the Prothonotary to give notice to the Sheriff accordingly.

CROWN CASES RESERVED.

14. Special Cases reserved on any Criminal Trial, when received by the Prothonotary, shall be set down for hearing on the next ensuing Friday on which the Court shall sit, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

MOTIONS NISI FOR NEW TRIAL.

15. All Causes in which the usual Memorandum has been filed of a Motion Nisi for a New Trial, shall be entered in the order of filing; and (subject to the provisions of the Rules of the 21st May, 1888) shall be called on in that order on every day in Term until disposed of.

PARTIES NOT READY TO PROCEED.

16. Every case so called on, in which no Counsel shall move, shall (unless the Court extends the time) be struck out of the Paper—with leave to the adverse Party to sign Judgment. And the like, where a Rule Nisi has been granted, and the Moving Party is not prepared to proceed.

FILED MEMORANDUM NECESSARY.

17. A filed Memorandum shall in all cases be necessary, under the Rules of the 19th August, 1861, and shall be filed in triplicate; but, where the Cause shall have ended during the Term, or within four days preceding the Term, no Motion in pursuance of such Memorandum need be made earlier than the fourth day after the filing thereof.

RULES NISI FOR NEW TRIAL.

18. Every Rule Nisi for a New Trial shall be entered in the Term Book as soon as granted, and called on in the order in which it was granted; and the Moving Party shall in all cases begin, and the Party showing cause follow—one Counsel having the reply.

19. Every such Rule shall be taken out, filed in triplicate, and served within seven days after it has been granted, otherwise it shall be held to have lapsed, and the Prothonotary shall thereupon strike the case out of the Term Book.

MOTIONS ON NOTICE.

20. All Motions on notice shall be entered in the Term Paper by the Prothonotary in the order in which they are filed, and shall come on for hearing in the said order.

PRECEDENCE OF BUSINESS.

21. Subject to Rule 3, Motions Nisi for New Trials will, on every day except Friday, have precedence of all other business. On Fridays Criminal and other Crown Cases will have precedence. On Tuesdays and on Fridays (after Criminal business) Motions generally will have precedence, then appeals in cases of emergency in interlocutory motions in the Equity, Bankruptcy, Ecclesiastical, and Divorce jurisdictions; then Motions on Notice, and then Motions. On Thursdays Demurrers, Special Cases, and District Court Appeals will have precedence. By leave of the Court, Common Motions may be taken on any day.

ORDER OF BUSINESS GENERALLY.

22. On every day, subject to the preceding Rule, all Matters in the Term Paper for argument shall be entered, and called on and heard, in the order of their date. Rules Nisi for New Trials will be classed under this Rule. All other Rules to show cause (unless the Court shall otherwise order) will be entered for and heard on some Tuesday or Friday only.

VACATION BUSINESS.

23. During the Vacations, Causes may be set down, and notices of Trial, and to admit or produce documents, may be given, and all Writs may be issued, executed, and returned; and all necessary proceedings may be taken for the purposes of an Appeal, or for obtaining or dissolving any Injunction: And Summonses in cases of emergency may be returnable in Chambers on any Friday.

24. During the Vacations no other business than that above specified will be taken without the leave of a Judge, nor shall any pleadings be filed or delivered without such leave, nor shall Time run at Law or in Equity.

25. In actions upon Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, and Cheques, all steps and proceedings which may be taken out of vacation without the leave of a Judge, may be taken during vacation without such leave, and Time shall run at Law, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding Rule contained.

CHAMBER BUSINESS.

26. Chamber Business at Law will be taken on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 10 o'clock, except during the sittings for the trial of Causes and during Term, when the Chamber business will be taken at 9:30 a.m.: Provided that a Summons may be returnable on any other day by order of a Judge.

27. Every Summons returnable on a Monday shall be served on the party whose attendance is required before 1 o'clock of the preceding Friday afternoon, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

28. No Chamber application will be entertained on any day, in or out of Term (except in cases of emergency) after 1 o'clock.

SATURDAYS.

29. There will be no Sitting of the Court in Sydney (except for the trial of Prisoners and except the last day of Term) on any Saturday: Provided that any Argument or Trial, not concluded on Friday, may be continued on Saturday, if the Court or Presiding Judge shall think fit. On all Saturdays the Supreme Court Offices will close at 12 o'clock noon.

RULES FOR THE ADMISSION OF BARRISTERS.

(Under 11 Victoria No. 57, and 30 Victoria No. 92.)

(N.B.—The additional and amending Rules referred to are printed at the end of these Rules.)

New South Wales to wit.

Friday, the 14th day of December, 1877.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Our Lady the Queen, intituled "An Act to regulate the admission in certain cases of Barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales," after reciting that it was expedient to make provision in certain cases for the admission of properly qualified persons to practise as Barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, it is enacted that the Judges of the Supreme Court at Sydney, the Attorney-General for the time being, and two Barristers of the Supreme Court, to be annually elected in the month of December for the year then ensuing, by the practising Barristers of the said Court, should form a Board for the approval of properly qualified persons to be Barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

And that the said Board should from time to time, as might appear to them to be expedient, make and promulgate Rules for the Examination of Candidates in the Ancient Classics, both Greek and Latin, in Mathematics, in Law, and in such other branches of knowledge as they should deem meet; and that the said Board might from time to time depute the Examination of such Candidates to such persons as they should consider competent to examine such Candidates, subject to the payment of such reasonable fees to the Examiners respectively as the said Board should order to be paid by such Candidates: Provided that no Candidate, however qualified in other respects, should be admitted to be a Barrister of the said Supreme Court, unless the said Board shall be satisfied that he is a person of good fame and character.

And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirty-ninth year of the reign of Our said Lady the Queen to amend the said recited Act, it is enacted that after the passing of the said Act no Candidate for admission to practise as a Barrister of the Supreme Court of New South Wales who shall have passed two annual examinations in the University of Sydney, shall be required to pass an examination in the Greek and Latin Classics, or in Mathematics, and that it shall not be obligatory on any Candidate whatsoever for such admission who shall pass an Examination in the Latin Classics and in Logic, or in the Latin Classics and the French Language and Literature, to be examined in the Greek Classics; anything in the said recited Act to the contrary, notwithstanding. And that the Board constituted by the said recited Act shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of the said Act, and from time to time as may appear to them expedient, make and promulgate rules for the Examination of Candidates for admission to the Bar, in Logic and the French Language and Literature:

And whereas it is considered expedient to repeal all Rules heretofore made for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, and to make and promulgate the Rules hereinafter contained for giving effect to the said recited Acts.

Now, therefore, we, The Honorable Sir James Martin, Chief Justice, and John Fletcher Hargrave, Esquire, Peter Faucett, Esquire, and Sir William Montagu Manning, being the present Judges of the said Supreme Court, with the Honorable William Bode Dalley, Esquire, Attorney-General, and the Honorable Frederick Matthew Darley, Esquire, and William John Foster, Esquire, the Barristers elected according to the first above mentioned Act in the month of December last, do hereby repeal all Rules now subsisting under the said Acts or either of them, excepting in respect of acts and matters done or commenced to be done thereunder, and we do, in pursuance of the said Acts, make and promulgate the following rules for the Examination and Admission of Candidates hereafter (see Rule 28) applying to be admitted Barristers of the Supreme Court, under the said Acts.

1. Every Candidate hereafter applying shall give written notice to the Board (a), through the Attorney-General, ten clear days at the least before the first day of some Term, of his intention to apply to be admitted a Barrister; and shall at the same time transmit to him, to be submitted to the Board, written testimonials from two or more persons resident in Sydney (of whom one shall be a Barrister, or a Graduate of some University within the meaning of the Acts hereinafter mentioned), to the effect that they have been well acquainted with the Candidate for twelve months and upwards, and that he is a person of good fame and character.

2. The Board shall meet at the Chief Justice's Chambers at 4 o'clock in the afternoon of the first Wednesday in that Term, or on some other day and hour named for that purpose by the Chief Justice, to consider the application of any such Candidate: Provided that such meeting may be adjourned from time to time, as shall be found necessary.

(a) See Rule 1 of 13th September, 1889.

3. No such Candidate shall be admitted to any Examination under the said Acts and these Rules until the Board shall first have been satisfied by the written testimonials, submitted to it, or by such further proofs, as it may deem necessary, that he is a person of good fame and character; nor shall any such Candidate after the required Examinations be admitted to practise as a Barrister unless the Board shall then continue to be so satisfied.

4. In any case in which it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Board that any such Candidate is a Graduate of a University within the meaning of the Acts 20 Victoria No 14, and 22 Victoria No. 23, or either of them, he shall be at once entitled to be admitted as a Student-at-law under these rules; and if it be shown that he has passed two Annual Examinations in the University of Sydney, he shall, prior to being so admitted as a Student-at-law, be examined in such branches of knowledge other than the Greek and Latin Classics, and Mathematics, French, or Logic, as the Board shall have required by any Rule under the authority of the first above recited Act.

5. Every other such Candidate shall, before being admitted as a Student-at-law, be examined in the following matters, that is to say, in the Greek and Latin Classics, and in Mathematics and History, or in the Latin Classics, Mathematics, and History, and either in Logic or in the French Language and Literature; and any Candidate applying to be examined accordingly shall be admitted to Examination in the subjects selected by him within the terms of this Rule; for which purpose direction shall be given by the Board at any meeting held under the second above Rule, or at some adjournment of the same.

6. The Board shall annually on the first Wednesday in the Third Term of the Court, or on some other day to be named as aforesaid, appoint such Examiners for the several branches of Examination as they may deem necessary: Provided that in default of such appointment at any time the Examiners previously appointed shall continue in office unless and until others shall have been duly appointed in their place; and provided also that in any case of vacancy, or upon any special occasion, the Board may at any time appoint another Examiner either generally or pro hoc vice as the case may require.

7. The said Examiners shall respectively attend in Sydney for the Examination of the Candidate on such day (after signification to them, by the Prothonotary, that the Candidate is to be admitted to such Examination), and at such place and hour as they shall appoint; of which appointment they shall give not less than two clear days notice to the Candidate and to the Prothonotary: Provided that the said meeting shall be within fourteen days after such signification, and that the Examiners respectively shall have power to adjourn from time to time, as may be thought necessary.

8. The subjects for examination, under Rule 5, shall be those specified in the Appendix hereto marked A: and so soon as conveniently may be after the Examination has been concluded, the Examiners shall respectively transmit to the Prothonotary a certificate, to be laid before the Board, that they have duly examined the Candidate on those subjects, in the manner prescribed by these Rules; and they shall report as to each of the said subjects, whether his Examination has or has not been satisfactory.

9. The standard of proficiency to be required at such Examinations as last aforesaid shall be equal to that of the two Annual Examinations in the University of Sydney, mentioned in the second above recited Act,—so far as such standard is capable of being applied to the subjects of Examination under the said Appendix A.

10. If it be certified that the Candidate's Examination has, on any subject, not been satisfactory; or if, for any reason be allowed by the Board, he shall not have prosecuted his Examination, the Candidate may, upon application to the Board for that purpose, be admitted to a second Examination. Provided that the fees hereinafter mentioned shall be payable in respect of each Examination.

11. On the first or third Wednesday in the Term next after the receipt of any such application as last mentioned, or of any Certificate from the Examiners, or on some other day named by the Chief Justice for that purpose, the Board shall meet at the Chief Justice's Chambers, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, or at such other hour as may be named by the Chief Justice for the purpose, to consider the same; and shall then, or on some day and hour of adjournment therefrom, determine on the admission or rejection of the Candidate as a Student-at-law, or to a second examination as aforesaid, as the case may require.

12. Every such Candidate as last mentioned shall be admitted as a Student-at-law when he shall (subject to the next succeeding Rule) have passed satisfactorily in all the subjects in Appendix A, in which he shall have elected or shall be required under the provisions of the second above recited Act to be examined.

13. Provided that where one Paper only has been answered unsatisfactorily, the Board may, in its discretion, approve of the Candidate, if the Examiners certify, as to any three of the other Papers, that his Examinations therein have been "very" satisfactory.

14. Provided also that nothing in these Rules shall prevent any person who shall have failed in passing, notwithstanding two Examinations, from applying de novo at any time after twelve months after the date of such failure.

15. The several Examinations in Law of any such Candidate may be at any times within three years after he shall have been admitted as a Student-at-law, upon signification by him to the Prothonotary of the Court that he is prepared for any such Examination, and that he desires to proceed to the same: Provided that the Board may, if it so think fit, allow any such Examination at a time later than the expiration of the said period of three years.

16. The Final Examination in Law of any Candidate shall not be permitted until he shall have been a Student-at-law within the meaning of the preceding Rules for at least one year; and during the period between the admission of a Candidate as a Student-at-law and his admission to the Bar, such Candidate shall pursue no business or occupation otherwise than in the way of Study and preparation for the Bar or in the nature of a literary pursuit.(a)

17. Such Examinations in Law shall be by two or more practising Barristers to be annually appointed for that purpose by the Board, as provided by Rule 6: Provided that the Board may, in respect of any branch of such Examinations, appoint also as Examiner, any Professor or Lecturer of the University of Sydney who may be conversant with the subjects thereof.

18. The Examiners in Law shall attend in Sydney, for the Examination of any Student-at-law, on such day after signification to them by the Prothonotary that such Student desires to proceed to any such Examination, and at such place and hour as they shall appoint, of which appointment two clear days' notice shall be given to the Student by the Examiners. Such attendance to be as soon after such signification as conveniently may be; but the Examiners shall have power to adjourn from time to time, as may be by them thought necessary.(b)

19. The subjects for Examination in Law shall be those specified in the Appendix hereto, marked B; and so soon as any Examination has been concluded in either of the branches therein prescribed, the Examiners shall transmit to the Prothonotary a Certificate and Report as to those subjects, to the effects mentioned in the 8th of these Rules: Provided that the Students shall be first examined in the subjects of the first branch, and shall not proceed to Examination in the second branch until they shall be adjudged to have passed satisfactorily in the said first branch.(c)

20. On the first or third Wednesday in the Term next after the receipt of any Certificate from the Examiners in Law, or on some other day to be named by the Chief Justice for that purpose, the Board shall meet and consider the same; and shall then or on some day of adjournment, determine as to the sufficiency or otherwise of the Student's proficiency in the subjects of the Examination to which the said certificate shall relate, or on admitting the Candidate to a second Examination, as provided in Rule 10 as to Examinations under Appendix A.

21. No Candidate shall be admitted to the Bar until he shall have passed in all the subjects of Examination in Law: Provided that any Candidate who shall have failed to pass may apply de novo at any time after twelve months thereafter, as in cases within Rule 14.

22. The Examinations, under either Appendix A or B, shall be by printed or written questions, given to the Candidate at the time of Examination, and answered by him in writing, in the presence of the Examiners or one of them; and there shall be separate Examination Papers on the several subjects, containing each not less than twelve nor more than eighteen questions, or in respect of the Classical Papers, and the French

24. The answers to each Paper shall be signed by the Candidate, and be forwarded by the Examiners to the Prothonotary as soon as conveniently may be, under seal, with the questions, and their Certificate and Report on such answers.

25. Whenever the Report of the Examiners under either appendix shall not be that the Examination has been "satisfactory" as to at least four, or "very satisfactory" to at least three of the subjects for Examination, the Second Examination, if allowed, shall extend to all the subjects of the Examination; but whenever the Report is "satisfactory" as to four or "very satisfactory" as to three subjects, the second Examination may be ordered to extend to the remaining subject, or subjects only.

26. So soon as any Candidate for the Bar shall have passed all the Examinations required by these Rules, the Board shall, subject to the provisions in Rule 1, give directions for his admission at the Bar; and he shall be admitted and sworn in open Court, on any day following, in or out of Term, by any two Judges sitting together.

FURTHER RULES FOR THE ADMISSION OF BARRISTERS.

(Under 11 Victoria No. 57, and 39 Victoria No. 32.)

New South Wales to wit.

Wednesday, 2nd March, 1887. (a)

WHEREAS by certain Rules prepared on the fourteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, by the then Chief Justice and the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Attorney-General for the time, and two Barristers elected in pursuance of the Act of the eleventh year of Her Majesty's reign, numbered fifty-seven, as members of a board for the approval of properly qualified persons to be Barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, it was amongst other things ordered by the sixteenth rule as follows:—

"The final examination in law of any Candidate shall not be permitted until he shall have been a Student-at-law within the meaning of the preceding rules for at least one year, and during the period between the admission of a Candidate as a Student-at-Law and his admission to the Bar, such candidate shall pursue no business or occupation otherwise than in the way of study and preparation for the Bar, or in the nature of a literary pursuit."

And whereas it is deemed fitting for the purpose of securing better preparation for the Bar in accordance with the practice for admission to the Bar in other parts of Her Majesty's Dominions, that such period of law studentship should be extended as herein provided in respect of all persons who shall hereafter be admitted as Students-at-law.

Now, therefore, we, the Honorable Frederick Matthew Darley, Chief Justice, and Peter Faucett, William Montagu Manning, and Joseph George Long Innes, Judges of the Supreme Court, with the Honorable William John Foster, Attorney-General, and Henry Emanuel Cohen, one of the Barristers elected according to the said Act in the month of December last, do hereby make and promulgate the following rules:—

1. From and after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, no candidate not admitted as a student at law before that date (save as hereinafter provided) shall be admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court of the Colony, unless he shall have been for three years an admitted law student, within the above recited rule, and shall have complied with the requirements of that rule during the whole of such extended period, and such Rule shall, in all respects, be read as if the words, "for at least three years," were inserted therein in lieu of the words, "at least one year."
