

NEW SOUTH WALES
LAW ALMANAC, FOR 1900.

WILLIAM APPEGATE GULLICK, GOVERNMENT PRINTER, SYDNEY.
1900.

Friday, the 9th day of March, 1900.

THE NEW SOUTH WALES
BAR ASSOCIATION.

1. In addition to the persons mentioned in Rule Three of the Rules of the 18th December, 1877, relating to the admission of Attorneys, the following persons shall be eligible for admission as Solicitors of the Court, namely:—

Any person who has or who hereafter shall have completed the term of ten years of clerkship in the office or offices of some one or more Solicitors practising in the Colony of New South Wales and who has for at least five of such ten years been a Managing Clerk in such office or offices.

2. Any such person must pass the Intermediate Law and Final Law Examinations prescribed for Articled Clerks, for the purpose of which examinations, as regards notices and payment of fees, such person shall be deemed to be an Articled Clerk.

3. No person shall be allowed to present himself for the Final Law Examination until at least six months have elapsed from the time of his passing the Intermediate Law Examination.

4. Before any such person can be admitted to the Intermediate Law Examination he must obtain the permission of the Judges of the Supreme Court to be so examined.

5. To obtain such permission such person must apply, through the Secretary of the Solicitors Admission Board, to the Judges, and together with such application must lodge the following documents:—

(a) A certificate from each Solicitor with whom such person has been a Clerk to show that the applicant is entitled to apply and that his character and knowledge of his work are such as to render him fit to be admitted as a Solicitor.

(b) A certificate from two Counsel of five years' standing to whom the applicant is personally known as to his competency and character.

(c) Certificates from two householders to whom the applicant has been known for at least five years, as to his character and fitness to be admitted as a Solicitor.

Provided, however, that the giving or withholding of such permission shall be in the absolute discretion of the said Judges, and that in any case further or other certificates may be required.

Any such person who has passed the Intermediate Law Examination shall be entitled to proceed to the Final Law Examination in the same manner as if he had been articled previously to the 21st September, 1894, and his Articles had expired.

SYDNEY CAUSES.

VACATION.

Tuesday, the twelfth day of December, 1899.

REGULÆ GENERALES.

The following Rules are hereby established, for the despatch of business in the Supreme Court, during the year 1900 :—

TERMS, HOLIDAYS, SITTINGS, AND VACATIONS.

1. The Terms, Holidays, Vacations, Circuits, and Sittings of the Court shall be those mentioned in the Law Almanac annexed hereto.

CONFIRMATION OF ORDERS.

2. Notice must be given to the Prothonotary, on or before the Saturday preceding the commencement of each Term, of all intended applications for confirmation by the Court of orders made under and by virtue of Section 27 of 4 Victoria No. 23.

ADDITIONAL DAYS FOR DEMURRERS, AND SPECIAL CASES.

3. Demurrers and Special Cases may be heard on such additional days as two Judges shall appoint.

EQUITY, BANKRUPTCY, PROBATE, AND DIVORCE APPEALS.

4. Equity, Bankruptcy, Probate, and Divorce Appeals may be set down for, and will take precedence, on the Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of the second and of each alternate week during Term. Appeals in interlocutory motions in these jurisdictions may, in case of emergency, be heard on any Monday or Thursday in Term.

EQUITY.

5. The Chief Judge in Equity will sit for the hearing of Causes on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, at 11 o'clock; for the hearing of Motions and Petitions on Monday and Wednesday, from 10 to 11 o'clock; in Chambers, for Chamber applications, on Tuesday, from 10 to 11 o'clock; for Lunacy matters, on Thursday, from 10 to 11 o'clock; and for Motions, Petitions, adjourned Summonses, Decrees on further directions, Motions for Decree, Demurrers, Special Cases, Short Causes, and other similar matters, on Friday, from 10 o'clock.

PROBATE, BANKRUPTCY, AND COMPANY MATTERS.

6. Applications for Probates and Letters of Administration and other non-contentious Probate matters will be taken by the Probate Judge on Friday at 10 o'clock, or at such other times as he shall appoint. All other Probate matters will be taken by the Probate Judge at such times as he shall appoint.

The Judge in Bankruptcy will unless he shall otherwise appoint, take all Company matters on Tuesday at 10 o'clock, and the General Bankruptcy Business as follows:—Motions under Section 130 on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday; all other matters on Wednesday and Thursday, at 10 o'clock.

SETTING DOWN CAUSES AT LAW.

7. To the extent limited for each day as next mentioned, Causes shall be set down consecutively only. No more than four Causes shall be set down for any day for Trial by a Jury of four persons, nor more than two Causes for Trial by a Special Jury, or three Causes by a Common Jury: Provided that an additional number of Causes, not exceeding two, may be set down for any day, if the Prothonotary shall see fit.

8. For each day of the Sittings for Causes there shall be three separate Cause Lists, which will be taken respectively in the Banco and in No. 1 and No. 2, Jury Courts. And until all Lists have been filled, in accordance with the preceding Rule, no Cause shall (except by leave of the Prothonotary, approved of in writing by a Judge) be set down in any List for any subsequent day.

JURIES OF TWELVE.

9. Provided that Causes for Trial by Juries of Twelve (whether Special or Common Jurors) shall be set down for such days only as the Prothonotary shall in each case direct.

POSTPONEMENT.

10. When any Sittings for Causes are postponed, the date for the trial of any Cause, which has been specially fixed, shall also be postponed for the same number of days as that for which the Sittings have been postponed, unless the Judge shall otherwise order.

CAUSES UNCONCLUDED DURING THE SITTINGS.

11. Any Cause, not concluded on the last day of the Sittings, may be continued on such day or days as the Presiding Judge shall think fit.

TRANSFERRING CAUSES.

12. Causes, on the List of any Court, may be transferred to the List of any other, by order of a Judge, for Trial on the day next but one following, or any later day: Provided that no such day shall be earlier than that for which the Cause was first entered.

REMANETS GENERALLY.

13. Remanets from any Sitting shall have precedence over other Causes; and shall be set down by the Prothonotary, each according to its appropriate List, for the next Sittings.

CAUSES ON CIRCUIT.

14. Causes for Trial in the Circuit Courts, respectively, shall be entered for the day fixed for holding the Circuit in the Law Almanac annexed hereto. But whenever it shall appear to the Chief Justice, or to the Judge intending to hold any Circuit Court, that it will not be convenient to hear the Civil Causes (if any) set down for trial at that Court on the day named for such Causes in the Calendar for the time being, it shall be competent to the Chief Justice or to such Judge, not less than sixteen days before the day which shall have been fixed by the Calendar for opening the said Court, to appoint some other day for the trial of such Causes, by direction to the Prothonotary, and the Prothonotary shall thereupon forthwith give notice of such appointment to the Solicitors in the said Causes or to their town agents, and also to the Sheriff, so that the Civil Jury may be summoned or receive notification accordingly, and all notices already given between the parties shall hold good and be applied to the day so specially appointed, and all notices and subpoenas to be thereafter given or issued shall be given or issued for that day.

15. If there shall be no Civil Causes set down and notice of trial given and notified to the Prothonotary for any Circuit Court, up to the sixteenth day before the day named in the Calendar for the time being for the trial of Civil Causes thereat, no jury shall be summoned to such Court for the trial of Civil Issues without the leave of a Judge, and it shall be the duty of the Prothonotary to give notice to the Sheriff accordingly.

CROWN CASES RESERVED.

16. Special Cases reserved on any Criminal Trial, when received by the Prothonotary, shall be set down for hearing on the next ensuing Friday on which the Court shall sit, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

MOTIONS NISI FOR NEW TRIAL.

17. All Causes in which the usual Memorandum has been filed of a Motion Nisi for a New Trial, shall be entered in the order of filing; and (subject to the provisions of the Rules of the 21st May, 1888) shall be called on in that order on every day in Term until disposed of.

PARTIES NOT READY TO PROCEED.

18. Every case so called on, in which no Counsel shall move, shall (unless the Court extends the time) be struck out of the Paper—with leave to the adverse Party to sign Judgment. And the like, where a Rule Nisi has been granted, and the Moving Party is not prepared to proceed.

FILED MEMORANDUM NECESSARY.

19. A filed Memorandum shall in all cases be necessary under the Rules of the 19th August, 1861, and at the time of filing such Memorandum the party filing same shall lodge with the Prothonotary three additional copies thereof; but where the Cause shall have ended during the Term, or within four days preceding the Term, no Motion in pursuance of such Memorandum need be made earlier than the fourth day after the filing thereof.

RULES NISI FOR NEW TRIAL.

20. Every Rule Nisi for a New Trial shall be entered in the Term Book as soon as granted, and called on in the order in which it was granted; and the Moving Party shall in all cases begin, and the Party showing cause follow—one Counsel having the reply.

21. Every such Rule shall be taken out, filed in triplicate, and served within seven days after it has been granted, otherwise it shall be held to have lapsed, and the Prothonotary shall thereupon strike the case out of the Term Book.

MOTIONS ON NOTICE.

22. All Motions on Notice shall be entered in the Term Paper by the Prothonotary in the order in which they are filed, and shall come on for hearing in the said order.

PRECEDENCE OF BUSINESS.

23. Subject to Rule 3, Motions Nisi for New Trials will, on every day except Friday, have precedence of all other business. On Fridays Criminal and other Crown Cases will have precedence. On Mondays and on Thursdays Motions generally will have precedence, then appeals in cases of emergency in interlocutory motions in the Equity, Bankruptcy, Probate, and Divorce jurisdictions; then Motions on Notice, and then Motions. On Tuesdays and Wednesdays New Trial Motions will be heard. On Fridays Demurrers, Special Cases, and District Court Appeals will be heard. By leave of the Court, Common Motions may be taken on any day.

ORDER OF BUSINESS GENERALLY.

24. On every day, subject to the preceding Rule, all Matters in the Term Paper for argument shall be entered, and called on and heard, in the order of their date. Rules Nisi for New Trials will be classed under this Rule. All other Rules to show cause (unless the Court shall otherwise order) will be entered for and heard on some Monday or Thursday only.

VACATION BUSINESS.

25. During the Long Vacation, from the commencement thereof to the 31st January following, both days inclusive, except as in the next Rule provided, time shall not run at Law or in Equity, nor shall any business other than that specified in the following Rules be taken without the leave of a Judge; but after the said 31st January, and throughout the Short Vacation, time shall run both at Law and in Equity.

26. During the Long Vacation, from the commencement thereof to the 31st January following, both days inclusive, in any action in which the Writ has been specially endorsed in pursuance with the provisions of section 24 of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1899, all steps and proceedings in respect of such actions may be taken and time shall run at Law.

27. During the period in the preceding Rule mentioned, Causes may be set down, and notices of Trial, and to admit or produce documents, may be given, and all Writs may be issued, executed, and returned; Judgment may be signed in all cases when the time which must expire before same can be signed has expired before vacation begins; and in every case Costs may be taxed if the Taxing Officers shall deem it necessary; and all necessary proceedings may be taken for the purposes of an Appeal, or for obtaining or dissolving any Injunction. The memorandum required to be filed, in pursuance of Rule 4 of the 19th August, 1861, must be filed within the times respectively limited by such Rule, notwithstanding Vacation. And Summonses in cases of emergency may be returnable in Chambers on any Wednesday.

CHAMBER BUSINESS.

28. Chamber Business at Law will be taken on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 10 o'clock, except during the sittings for the trial of Causes and during Term, when the Chamber business will be taken at 9.30 a.m. : Provided that a Summons may be returnable on any other day by order of a Judge.

29. Every Summons returnable on a Monday shall be served on the party whose attendance is required before 1 o'clock of the preceding Friday afternoon, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

30. No Chamber application will be entertained on any day, in or out of Term (except in cases of emergency) after 1 o'clock.

SATURDAYS.

31. There will be no Sitting of the Court in Sydney (except for the trial of Prisoners and except the last day of Term) on any Saturday : Provided that any Argument or Trial, not concluded on Friday, may be continued on Saturday, if the Court or Presiding Judge shall think fit.

RULES FOR THE ADMISSION OF BARRISTERS.

(Under 7 Victoria No. 57 and 39 Victoria No. 32.)

New South Wales to wit.

Thursday, the 24th day of September, A.D. 1891.

WE, the Honorable Sir Frederick Darley, Knight, Chief Justice, and the Honorable Sir William Charles Windeyer, Knight, the Honorable Sir Joseph George Long Innes, Knight, the Honorable Matthew Henry Stephen, the Honorable William Owen, the Honorable William John Foster, and the Honorable Charles James Manning, being the present Judges of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, with the Honorable George Bowen Simpson, Queen's Counsel, the Attorney-General for the time being of the said Colony, and the Honorable Charles Edward Pilcher, Queen's Counsel, and George Houstoun Reid, Esquire, the two barristers elected in the month of December last, according to the Act 11 Victoria No. 57, being the Board constituted under the said Act for the approval of properly qualified persons to be barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, do, by virtue of the provisions of the said Act and of the Act 39 Victoria No. 32, hereby repeal all Rules now subsisting under the said Acts or either of them, except in respect of matters done or commenced to be done thereunder; and we do, in pursuance of the said Acts, make and promulgate the following Rules for the examination and admission of candidates who shall hereafter apply to be admitted barristers of the said Supreme Court under the said Acts: Provided always, that the provisions contained in these Rules shall be deemed to apply to all persons admitted as Students-at-law under the Rules hereby repealed; and provided that the examiners appointed under the rules hereby repealed shall continue to examine under these rules until the end of the present year.

1. The Board shall meet in the Chambers of the Chief Justice on the first and third Wednesdays in each Term, or meetings on such other dates as the Attorney-General may appoint

2. Every person, not being a barrister-at-law or advocate admitted in Great Britain or Ireland, applying for admission to the Bar, shall, before being entitled to the certificate referred to in Rule 22—

1. Have been a Student-at-law for the period required and passed all examinations prescribed by these Rules; or
2. Being a graduate of the University of Sydney, admitted under sub-clause 2 of Rule 4 a student-at-law at the end of his second year, produce certificates that he has kept four Terms in one of the Inns of Court in London, and has passed all the examinations required by these Rules; or
3. Have been a Solicitor of this Court, in practice for not less than five years; have caused his name to be struck off the Roll of Solicitors before his admission as student-at-law; and have passed all examinations required by these Rules.

Application for admission to literary examination, &c.

3. Every person applying for admission to the preliminary literary examination under Appendix A, or for admission as a student-at-law, shall give written notice to the Board, through the Attorney-General, fourteen days before the first day of any Term. Such notice shall be accompanied by certificates from two or more persons resident in the Colony, testifying that they have been well acquainted with the applicant and that he is a person of good fame and character. And the Board may require the applicant to give such further proofs as to his fame and character as it may deem necessary.

Qualifications of students at law.

4. Every applicant for admission as student-at-law shall—

1. Be a graduate in Arts of the University of Sydney or a graduate in Arts, Law, or Medicine of some University within the meaning of the Act 22 Victoria No. 23; or
2. Have passed two annual examination in the Arts course at the University of Sydney, and shall thereafter in due course become a graduate in Arts of such University; or
3. Have passed two annual examinations in the Arts course at the University of Sydney and the History Examination under Appendix A; or
4. Have passed the preliminary literary examination under Appendix A; or
5. Have been a Solicitor of this Court in practice for not less than five years; have caused his name to be struck off the Roll of Solicitors; and, if not exempt therefrom, have passed the examinations under Appendices A and B.

Term of studentship.

5. Every student-at-law applying for admission to the Bar, being a graduate at the time he became a student-at-law, or becoming a graduate during his studentship, as provided for by sub-clause 2 of Rule 4, shall have been a student-at-law for at least two years; and every such applicant not being or becoming a graduate as aforesaid, shall have been a student-at-law for at least three years:

Provided, however, that a Solicitor admitted a student-at-law under sub-clause 5 of Rule 4, shall not be required to be a student-at-law for a longer period than will elapse between his admission as student-at-law and his passing the final examination in law under Appendix C: Provided also that any person who shall produce a certificate that he has kept four terms as a student-at-law of any English or Irish Inn of Court, may be allowed to count the same as equivalent to one year passed as a student-at-law under these Rules.

6. During studentship every student-at-law shall be a bona fide resident in this Colony, and before admission to the Bar shall make a declaration in the form in Appendix D, and submit to the Board proof, similar to that required by Rule 3, of his good fame and character: Provided, however, that the residence of a student-at-law in London when keeping his terms at an Inn of Court, under sub-clause 2 of Rule 2, shall not be held to be a contravention of this Rule.

7. Every applicant for examination in Appendices B and C shall, before the commencement of any Term, lodge with the Secretary an application in writing to the Board for admission to such examination, and the Secretary shall send each applicant two clear days' notice of his admission to any examination under these Rules.

8. All examinations shall be held on the second Wednesday in each Term, at such place in Sydney, and at such hour, as may be appointed by the examiners: Provided that the examiners may appoint a later date, so long as such date shall not be more than fourteen days from that mentioned in this Rule; but this limitation shall not take effect in the case of a student-at-law who is proceeding to the examination of Bachelor of Laws in the University of Sydney.

9. If, for a reason to be allowed by the Board, a candidate shall not in due course have proceeded to any examination to which he shall have been admitted, he may, upon application, be readmitted to examination during the next ensuing Term: Provided that the fees under Rule 23 shall be payable on such readmission, unless the Board shall otherwise direct.

10. Every candidate for the preliminary literary examination shall pass in all the subjects prescribed in Appendix A; and the standard of proficiency required shall be equal to that of the second annual examination in the University of Sydney, so far as such standard is capable of being applied to the subjects of examination under Appendix A.

11. Every student-at-law, unless he shall satisfy the Board that he holds the degree of Bachelor of Laws of the University of Sydney, or of some University within the meaning of the Act 22 Victoria No. 23, or the degree of Bachelor of Civil Laws of the University of Oxford, or that he has passed in the First Class of the school of Jurisprudence in the University of Oxford or Cambridge, or that he has passed an examination in Roman, International, and Constitutional Law at one of the Inns of Residence during studentship, &c.

A Solicitor, of not less than five years' practice, may proceed to examination under Appendices A and B without having his name struck off the Roll of Solicitors 13. The final examination for the degree of Bachelor of Laws of the University of Sydney, if such examination be in the same subjects and include the books mentioned in Appendix C, shall for all purposes be deemed to be an examination under Appendix C: Provided that all notices shall be given, and fees paid as required by these Rules in the case of a student-at-law proceeding to final examination.
Time allowed for proceeding to examinations, &c.	14. Every student-at-law shall pass in all the subjects prescribed in Appendix C, and being a graduate may proceed to that examination after he shall have been a student-at-law for one year and six months; and if not a graduate, he may proceed to the said examination after he shall have been a student-at-law for two years: Provided that a Solicitor admitted student-at-law under sub-clause 5 of Rule 4, may at once proceed to the examination held under Appendix C; and in all cases such examination shall be passed within three years from admission as a student-at-law, unless the Board allow the examination at a later period.
Character of examinations.	15. The examination under Appendices A, B, and C shall be by printed or written questions given to the candidate at the time of examination, and answered by him in writing, in the presence of the examiners or one of them and there shall be separate papers on the several subjects, containing each not less than twelve nor more than eighteen questions, and in respect of the Classical papers and the French language, three passages for translation, of not less than fifteen nor more than twenty-five lines each from the books specified, with at least ten questions in addition having reference to the said books.
Time allowed for examinations.	16. Not more than three hours shall be allowed for answering any one examination paper.
Examiners.	17. During the third Term of each year the Board shall appoint for the ensuing year the following examiners:— <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Professor of Law of the University of Sydney and two practising barristers for the examinations under Appendix C. 2. A practising barrister, or such other person as the Board may approve, for the examinations under Appendix B. 3. Two or more professors of the University of Sydney, or such other persons as the Board may approve, for the examinations under Appendix A.
	And all such examiners shall continue to act beyond the year for which they have been appointed unless others shall have been appointed by the Board in their stead : Provided that in any case of vacancy, or upon any special occasion, the Board may at any time appoint another examiner, either generally or pro hac vice, as the case may require.

18. As soon as possible after any examination the examiners shall transmit to the Secretary the questions and answers in the case of each candidate, together with a report, which shall state whether the answers have or have not been "satisfactory" or "very satisfactory" in each subject. And at the first meeting of the Board after such reports have been received by the Secretary the Board shall consider the same, and shall then or on some day of adjournment determine as to the sufficiency or otherwise of the candidate's proficiency in the subjects of the examination to which the reports shall relate.

Reports by Examiners.

19. If in any examination under Appendix A the answers of the candidate have been "unsatisfactory" as to only one subject and "very satisfactory" as to any three of the other subjects, the Board may resolve that the candidate has satisfactorily passed the said examination, anything to the contrary in Rule 10 notwithstanding. (a)

Considera-
reports.

20. If a candidate fail to pass the examination in Appendix A, B, or C, the Board may upon his application admit him to a second examination during the next ensuing term. But after such second examination no further application for examination shall be entertained until six months shall have elapsed from the last failure.

Second examination.

21. If in any examination under Appendix C the answers of the candidate have not been "satisfactory" as to at least four, or "very satisfactory" as to at least three of the subjects, a second examination, if allowed by the Board, shall extend to all the subjects.

22. As soon as a candidate shall have fulfilled all the requirements of these Rules the Board shall certify that he is eligible for admission to the Bar and he shall be admitted and sworn in in open Court on any day following, in Term, by any two judges sitting together. No admission will be made under these Rules unless the person applying be present in Court in person, and immediately after admission each barrister shall sign the Roll.

Admissions,
&c.

23. Repealed by Rule of 9th October, 1899, which provides : At the time of applying for admission to any examination or re-examination each candidate shall pay the following fees :—

Fees.

Under Appendix A—Twenty guineas.

Under Appendix B—Ten guineas.

Under Appendix C—Twenty guineas.

Under Appendix C—Five guineas if for re-examination in one subject only.

And at the same time, and upon application for admission as a student-at-law, shall pay a fee of one guinea to the Secretary, which shall be retained by him. And all such fees shall be paid to the Secretary and certified by him to the Board as so paid before the candidate shall be admitted to any examination.

(a) See Rule of 20th December, 1895, page 119.

Secretary. 24. The Board may appoint the Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court, or such other person as may be approved, to act as Secretary to the Board, and such Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Board, keep minutes of all its proceedings, conduct its correspondence, and perform such other duties as the Board may require.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT RELATING TO THE ADMISSION OF ATTORNEYS.

(N.B.—The additional and amending Rules referred to are printed at the end of these Rules.)

REGULÆ GENERALES.

Tuesday, the 18th day of December, A.D. 1877.

1. So soon as these Rules shall come into operation all former Rules relating to the admission of persons to appear and act as Attorneys, Solicitors, and Proctors of the Supreme Court of New South Wales shall be repealed.

2. The designation "Solicitor" shall, in these Rules, and in all future proceedings and notices or otherwise, be deemed to comprise Attorneys and Proctors as well as Solicitors.

Admission of Solicitors.

3. The following persons only shall be eligible to be admitted as Solicitors of the Court :—(a)

1st. Persons actually admitted as Attorneys or Solicitors of the Courts of England or Ireland, and Writers to the Signet of Scotland, and having actually resided in this Colony for the preceding three months.

2nd. The Attorneys, Solicitors, and Proctors (having actually resided in this Colony for the preceding three months) of any of the other Australasian Colonies of Great Britain wherein a standard of qualification substantially equal to that of this Colony shall, in the opinion of the Judges of this Court, have been adopted and acted upon, and wherein corresponding eligibility for the admission of the practitioners of this Court to the Courts of such Colonies shall have been established.

3rd. Repealed by Rule of 31st March, 1887, which provides: Persons having been articled to a practising Solicitor in New South Wales, and having served the term of five years' clerkship, or if they have taken a degree in ^a University as hereinafter mentioned previous to entering into articles, the term of three years' clerkship, and having passed the examinations required by these Rules: Provided that such persons may serve for any part of such term not exceeding one year with the Sydney Agent of such Solicitor without assignment, and such service with such Sydney Agent shall be equivalent to service for the same time with such Solicitor under the original articles: Provided also that such Sydney Agent shall be required to answer such questions and give such certificates as he would have been required to answer and give if such person had actually served him under articles of assignment.

(a) See Rule of 25th June, 1890, page 132.

4th. a. Repealed by Rule 2, of 25th February, 1893, which provides: Persons who having been articled to an Attorney or Solicitor of one of the Queen's Superior Courts of Great Britain or Ireland, or to a Writer to the Signet in Scotland, shall have served the full term of years required under such articles, and shall have passed the Intermediate Examinations in England, Ireland, or Scotland, as the case may be; or

b. Persons who, having been articled to a Solicitor of one of the Queen's Superior Courts of Great Britain or Ireland, or to a Writer to the Signet in Scotland, or to a Solicitor of this Court, shall serve under assignment or re-assignment any portion or portions of their articles either in England, Ireland, or Scotland, or in this Colony, and shall complete the residue of their articles either in England, Ireland, or Scotland, or in this Colony:

Provided that in the cases under section b of this sub-clause the requisite Intermediate Examinations may be passed either in this Colony or in England, Ireland, or Scotland, and that the time occupied in travelling between this Colony and Great Britain, Ireland, or Scotland, shall be made up by service under articles which may be extended for the requisite period. And provided also that in all cases within this sub-clause the Final Examinations required by these Rules shall be passed before the Board of Examiners appointed hereunder. And this sub-clause shall take effect as from the eighteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

5th. Persons who at the time of the passing of these Rules have completed, or who have commenced and shall complete the term of five years of clerkship in the Office of the Supreme Court or the Office of the Crown Solicitor, and shall pass the Final Examination required by these Rules, for the purposes of which examinations such persons shall be deemed to be articled Clerks within the Rules hereinafter contained relating thereto.(a)

Articled Clerks.

4. No Solicitor of the Court shall be allowed to have more than three articled Clerks at one time; and before any person shall be articled with a view to his admission as a Solicitor of this Court, he shall be introduced to the Judges by his intended master, who shall produce satisfactory certificates of the character and fitness of such person to be admitted to Articles with such view; and such person shall not be less than seventeen years of age, and shall be approved of by the Judges before entering into Articles.

(a) See Rule of 7th June, 1893, page 137.

5. Repealed by Rule of 31st March, 1887, which provides: Every person desirous of entering into Articles of Clerkship, who shall not have taken a degree in the University of Sydney, or in some other University recognised by it, shall, before approval of such Articles, produce to the Prothonotary a Certificate of his having passed a Matriculation Examination (a) in the said University, or in some other University recognised by it; or a Certificate from the Registrar of the University of Sydney, of his having passed some equivalent Examination before Professors or Examiners appointed by the Senate thereof; or a Certificate (b) of his having passed, in England, Scotland, or Ireland, the Preliminary Examination which articled Clerks may be there required to pass, and shall lodge with the said Prothonotary a copy of such Certificate.(a)

6. Every future Articled Clerk shall, after he shall have entered into Articles, and during his term of Clerkship, pass two Intermediate Examinations, with an interval of at least one year between each, in the subjects of History and Law respectively—such Examination in History to be by such Professor or Examiner as the Senate of the University of Sydney, or this Court may appoint in that behalf; and such Examination in Law to be by the Board of Examiners appointed under these Rules, and to have relation to the Laws of Real and Personal Property as set forth in the following works, that is to say, "Williams on Real Property," and "Williams on Personal Property"; Provided that in the case of Masters of Arts or Bachelors of Arts, as hereinbefore mentioned, no intermediate Examination otherwise than in Law shall be required.

7. No person who was articled previous to the passing of these Rules, nor any person who at the time of the passing thereof shall have completed, or shall have commenced and shall hereafter complete the term of five years of clerkship in the Office of the Supreme Court or of the Crown Solicitor, shall be required to pass any other but the Final Examination required by these Rules. But any such person may, if he shall think fit, submit to either or both of the intermediate examinations mentioned in the last preceding Rule.

8. No person during the time he shall be articled to a Solicitor with a view to his admission, shall pursue any profession, trade, or business, other than the proper business of a Solicitor.

Examiners and Examinations.

9. All Examinations in Law, both Intermediate and Final, shall be by a Board consisting of two Barristers and four Solicitors to be annually appointed by the Court, of which

(a) See Rule of 10th August, 1880, page 129; Rule 2 of 26th September, 1888, page 130.

(b) See Rule 1 of 21st September, 1894, page 133.

Board any three shall be a quorum ; and all members of such Board shall continue in office until their successors shall have been appointed.

10. No future Articled Clerk shall be admitted to the Final Examinations until an interval of not less than twelve months shall have elapsed after he shall have passed the Second Intermediate Examination required by these Rules.

11. If any Articled Clerk shall fail to pass at an Examination required of him, whether Intermediate or Final, he may from time to time apply for and shall be allowed a Re-examination after three calendar months from any such failure. (a)

12. No Articled Clerk shall be admitted to practise unless he shall produce Certificates of his having passed to the satisfaction of the Examiners in all the Examinations required of him by these Rules.

13. The Board shall appoint one day at least in every Term for holding an Intermediate Examination in Law.

14. Final Examinations shall be held at the Supreme Court House, on such days, being within the last ten days of every term, as the Board of Examiners shall appoint.

15. Every person applying for Examination shall attend the said Board of Examiners at the Supreme Court House, at such time or times as shall be appointed for that purpose by the said Board.

16. Repealed by Rule of 20th September, 1893, which provides : Persons applying for Final Examination in Law shall submit to be examined by the said Board, and must pass in each and all of the following subjects—

1. Real Property and Conveyancing.
2. Common Law and Evidence.
3. Equity, Divorce and Matrimonial, and Ecclesiastical Law.
4. Criminal Law.
5. Practice of the Supreme Court in all its Jurisdictions.
6. Jurisdiction and Practice of the Inferior Courts. (b)

17. The Board of Examiners shall from time to time, with the approval of the Judges, notify the Books and portions of books in which they intend, after not less than six months thereafter, to conduct the Final Examinations in Law.

(a) See Rule 1 of 10th Sept., 1891, page 132.

(b) See Rule of 21st September, 1894, page 133.

18. If the Examiner conducting the Examination of an Articled Clerk in History, under these Rules, shall be satisfied with the answers given by him, he shall certify the same under his hand, in the following terms, viz. :—

To the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court :—

I being the Examiner appointed to conduct the Examination in History of A.B. as a Solicitor's Articled Clerk, do hereby certify that I have examined the said A.B. in History, and that he has passed a satisfactory Examination therein.

19 and 20 repealed (a)

21. The Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court, or such other person as the Judges may from time to time appoint, shall be and act as Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and shall attend all meetings of the Board and keep minutes of all its proceedings and conduct its correspondence, and perform such other duties as the Board may require.

22. Every Articled Clerk shall, before being admitted to either of the Intermediate Examinations hereby required, pay into the hands of the Prothonotary an Examination Fee of Five pounds, and shall also, before admission to his Final Examination in Law, pay a fee of Ten pounds. (b) And such respective fees shall be by such Prothonotary paid rateably to the Examiners by whom the respective Examinations shall be conducted. (c)

Notices, &c.

23. Every Articled Clerk desirous of being examined at an Intermediate Examination shall give notice in writing of such his desire to the Prothonotary, before the commencement of the Term during which he desires to be examined.

24. Every person not previously admitted as a Solicitor, and desirous of being admitted under any of the last three clauses of Rule 3, shall, in addition to the notices hereafter required, give at the least one month's notice to the Board of Examiners of his intention to apply for Final Examination, by leaving the notice with the Prothonotary, which notice shall also state his place or places of residence, and service for the last two years; and before any such person shall be admitted, he shall procure the Certificate of the Examiners of his having passed the Final Examination required by these Rules.

25. Any person previously admitted as aforesaid, and desirous of being admitted under either of the first two clauses of Rule 3, shall at the time of giving the notice hereafter required, file with the Prothonotary the Affidavit on which he seeks for admission, together with the Certificate of his previous admission, which Affidavit shall contain the following allegations, viz. :-- Deponent's admission in one of the aforesaid Courts (a); that he has not done or committed any act or thing which would cause his name to be struck off the Roll of the said Court; and that to the best of his knowledge and belief his name still remains on the said Roll; that the copy of the Certificate annexed to his said affidavit is a true copy of his admission, and that he is the person named therein; the time when he ceased to practise; the time of his arrival in the Colony; that he has actually resided in this Colony for the preceding three months, the mode of his employment from the time he ceased to practise, and a reference to one or more respectable householder or householders resident within the Colony, to whom he is known; and the Rule (b) for the admission of such last-mentioned person shall be drawn up on reading such Affidavit, which Rule shall be conditional for twelve months, unless the Judges shall see cause to the contrary.

26. Every person who shall intend to apply for admission as a Solicitor of this Court (whether previously admitted elsewhere or not) shall, before the commencement of the Term in which he shall so apply, cause his name and place of abode, written in legible character, to be affixed in the Office of the Supreme Court, and also in the vestibule of the Court-house; and shall also cause notice of his intended application to be three several times published in two public newspapers of Sydney, during such Term, and no admission shall take place except only on the last day of such Term.

27. Every person applying at the expiration of his Articles to be admitted a Solicitor of the Court shall, before the commencement of the Term in which he is desirous of being admitted, leave or cause to be left with the Prothonotary his Articles of Clerkship (c), and also any assignment which may have been made thereof, and the Certificates of his having passed the required Examinations, together with answers to the several questions in the Appendix hereunto annexed, signed by the applicant, and also by the Solicitor or Solicitors with whom he shall have served his clerkship, and by two respectable householders to whom he is personally known. (d)

28. In case the applicant shall show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners why the preceding regulation cannot be fully complied with, it shall be in the power of the said Board, upon sufficient proof being given of the same, to dispense with any part of the said regulation that they may think fit or reasonable. 29. Every person applying for admission shall also, if required, sign and leave, or cause to be left, with the Prothonotary, answers in writing to such other written or printed questions as shall be proposed by the Board of Examiners touching his service and conduct; and shall also, if required, attend the said Board personally for the purpose of giving further explanations touching the same; and shall also, if required, procure the attendance of the Solicitor or Solicitors with whom he shall have served his clerkship as aforesaid; and also, if required, procure the attendance of such other person or persons as the Board may direct, to answer either personally or in writing any questions touching such service or conduct, or shall make proof to the satisfaction of the said Board of his inability to procure the same.

Miscellaneous.

30. Every Solicitor having been admitted on the Roll of this Court and ceasing to practise for twelve months continuously may be struck off the Roll, and shall not be readmitted without a Term's notice of his intention to apply for such re-admission; and at the time of giving such notice shall cause to be filed the Affidavit on which he seeks to be readmitted, with the Prothonotary, which Affidavit shall contain, in addition to the particulars now required, a statement of his place or places of abode, during the last preceding year, and how he has employed his time since he ceased to practise; and the rule for readmission of such person shall be drawn up on reading such Affidavit.

31. No Solicitor of the Court shall employ as a clerk, assistant, or writer, in or about his business as a Solicitor, any person who hath been or who shall be convicted of any felony or of wilful and corrupt perjury, or subornation of perjury, or common barratry.

32. Nothing in these Rules contained shall in any way interfere with, alter, or prejudice the authority of the Court to suspend or remove from the Rolls of Solicitors any person who shall, in the opinion of the Court, have been guilty of misconduct or of malpractice justifying such suspension or removal.

Commencement of Rules.

33. These Rules shall come into force on the first day of January, A.D. 1878, save only so far as they relate to the Matriculation Examinations or their equivalent as required by these Rules; the provisions in respect of which shall not come into operation until after the next Matriculation and Public Examinations of the University of Sydney.

APPENDIX.

REGULA GENERALIS.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Monday, the 13th day of December, in the year A.D. 1886.

ANY person who shall be or shall have been conditionally admitted a Solicitor for twelve months in pursuance of the twenty-fifth rule of the eighteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, shall, three months previous to the expiration of such twelve months, serve written notices on the Prothonotary and on the Secretary of the Incorporated Law Institute of his intention to apply to the Court to have such conditional admittance confirmed, and at the time of serving such notice on the Prothonotary, he shall file an affidavit in which he shall depose that he has not been engaged or occupied at any time since his conditional admission in any profession, business, pursuit, or calling, other than that of a Solicitor, and that he has not committed or omitted, or been privy to or cognizant of any act, matter, or thing disintitling him to such confirmation. And in case such conditional admission be not confirmed, and the rule drawn up accordingly at the expiration of such twelve months, the said conditional admission shall cease to operate after that time, unless the Judges shall in any case see cause to the contrary.

REGULÆ GENERALES.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Wednesday, the 26th day of September, A.D. 1888.

1. After the first day of January next all persons applying for admission as Solicitors of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, under sub-clauses one and two of Rule three of the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors, shall at the time of filing the affidavit required by the twenty-fifth of the said Rules, pay the sum of forty guineas to the Prothonotary, who shall in due course hand the same to the Treasurer of the Incorporated Law Institute of New South Wales, to be appropriated towards the Law Library Fund of that Institute; and all such applicants shall, when giving notice for their conditional admission, pay to the Secretary of the Solicitors' Admission Board one guinea, and a like fee when giving notice for the confirmation of such conditional admission: Provided that if in any case the Court shall refuse to grant conditional admission, the said sum of forty guineas shall be refunded to the applicant.

2. After the date of these Rules a Candidate, when giving notice of his intention to proceed to Examination, shall pay to the said Secretary in respect of the Law Matriculation, Intermediate History, or Intermediate Law Examinations, half a guinea, and in respect of the Final Law Examination, one guinea.

3. The fees payable under these Rules to the Secretary shall be retained by him.

Tuesday, the 18th day of November, A.D. 1888.

1. After the first day of January next, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors, any articled clerk may, provided he shall in due course have passed all the necessary Examinations, proceed to his Final Examination in Law during the last year of his articles. But he shall not be entitled to give notice of his intention to apply for admission as a Solicitor until after the expiration of the term of such articles (a).

2. A Candidate shall pay a fee of two pounds for every Re-examination in either of the Intermediate Examinations, and a fee of five pounds for every Re-examination in the Final Law Examination.

(a) See Rule 2 of 10 September, 1891, page 132.

3. All fees for Examinations or Re-examinations under any of the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors shall be paid to the Prothonotary at the time a Candidate shall give notice of his intention to proceed to Examination.

REGULÆ GENERALES (a).

Wednesday, the 25th day of June, A.D. 1890.

1. Any person who has been admitted as a Barrister of this Court, and who has not had less than five years' practice as such Barrister, and who has procured his name to be removed from the Roll of Barristers of the said Court with a view to becoming a Solicitor, and has obtained from two practising Barristers of this Court a certificate of his being a fit and proper person to practise as a Solicitor, shall not be required to serve any period under Articles of Clerkship, nor to pass any of the intermediate examinations required by the Rules of this Court relating to the admission of Solicitors, but shall be entitled to be admitted and enrolled as a Solicitor on passing the final examination required by the said Rules.

2. Any person applying for final examination and admission as aforesaid shall give all notices and pay all fees as are now prescribed by the said Rules to be given and paid by each applicant for final examination and admission as a Solicitor.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Friday, the 21st September, A.D. 1894.

1. No Certificate of Matriculation shall be recognised as sufficient unless the person producing it shall have passed in all the subjects required by the University of Sydney for intending Articed Clerks.

2. After the 1st day of October next, the subjects for the final examination of Articed Clerks under these Rules shall be arranged as follows:—

Section 1.—Real Property and Conveyancing.

Section 2.—Equity, Divorce and Matrimonial, and Ecclesiastical Law.

Section 3.—Common Law, Evidence, and Criminal Law.

Section 4.—Practice of the Supreme Court in all its Jurisdictions. (Jurisdiction and Practice of Inferior Courts.

3. Every person (being a graduate) hereafter entering Articles of Clerkship shall present himself for examination as follows:—

Intermediate Law.—6 months after date of Articles.

Section 1.—12 months after passing Intermediate Law Examination.

Sections 2 and 3.—12 months after passing section 1.

Section 4.—6 months after passing sections 2 and 3.

4. Every person (not being a graduate) hereafter entering Articles of Clerkship shall present himself for examination as follows:—

History Examination.—6 months after date of Articles.

Intermediate Law.—6 months after passing History Examination.

Section 1.—12 months after passing Intermediate Law Examination.

Section 2.—12 months after passing section 1.

Section 3.—12 months after passing section 2.

Section 4.—12 months after passing section 3.

5. If any Articled Clerk shall fail to pass any examination, whether Intermediate or Final, he may from time to time apply for and shall be allowed a re-examination in the Term following such failure: Provided, however, that in case of a second failure he shall not be allowed, until after the expiration of the time hereinafter mentioned from his passing such examination, to proceed to his next subject, that is to say in the case of an Intermediate Examination six months and in the case of a Final Examination nine months.

6. Any Articled Clerk, being a graduate, who shall reside more than 200 miles from Sydney, may elect to take his examinations in sections 1, 2, and 3 together, and if not a graduate, he may elect to take his examinations in sections 1 and 2 together, and subsequently in sections 3 and 4 together: Provided that he shall not be allowed to proceed to such combined examinations until the time fixed for the latest section in such combination.

7. Whenever, in accordance with the requirements of these or any existing Rules, a certain period must elapse between examinations, an Articled Clerk may nevertheless proceed to any examination, provided it be held no more than twenty-one days before the earliest date at which he could, under the said Rules, proceed to such examination.

8. The same notices to proceed to examination shall be given under these Rules as are required to be given under the Rules at present in force.

9. Each Articled Clerk shall pay a fee of two pounds ten shillings for every examination or re-examination in each section of the Final Examination, and to the Secretary at the same time, a fee of half a guinea (subject to Rule 3 of 26th September, 1888). All such fees shall be paid to the Secretary at the time when the Articled Clerk shall give notice of his intention to proceed to examination or re-examination.

10. Any Clerk articled prior to the date of these Rules may avail himself of the provisions of these Rules to pass any of the examinations hereby prescribed which correspond with the period of his articles. And any such Clerk who has entered the last year of his articles, or has completed his articles may, provided he shall in due course have passed all previous examinations, proceed to examination in sections 1, 2, and 3 of the Final Examination and subsequently to examination in section 4: Provided, however, that six months must elapse after he has passed sections 1, 2, and 3 before he can proceed to section 4.

11. After passing all the subjects in each section of any examination an Articled Clerk shall be entitled to a certificate in the form A annexed, and after passing all examinations and having, on the expiration of his articles, complied with all the requirements of the Rules, he shall be entitled to a certificate in the form B annexed.

12. Repealed by Rule of 3rd November, 1897, which provides: The Professor of Law in the University of Sydney for the time being shall be ex officio a member of the Board of Examiners, constituted under Rule 9 of the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors, and he, or such other person as the Judges may from time to time appoint, shall also be President of the said Board. All questions set in the Law Examinations shall be first considered and approved by the Board, and all answers to such questions shall be considered and marks allotted by two members of the Board, one of whom, in respect of sections 1, 2, and 3, shall be the Professor of Law. Provided, however, that, in case of need, and with the approval of the Board, the duties of the President, in respect of either one or more of the subjects comprised in the said sections, may be delegated by the President to any other member or members of the Board.

13. The degree of Bachelor of Laws of the University of Sydney obtained by an Articled Clerk who has attended the law lectures appointed by the said University, shall exempt him from passing the Intermediate Law Examination and sections 1, 2, and 3 of the Final Examination: Provided, however, that he shall be required to pass section 4 of the Final Examination, and to give all notices and pay all fees as required by the existing Rules in the case of an Articled Clerk proceeding to Final Examination.

Notice as to the Intermediate and Final Law Examinations.

1. The text-books for these examinations are prescribed mainly for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales on all subjects treated of in such text-books.

2. In addition to the prescribed text-books, the attention of candidates is in some cases specially directed to such of the local statutes hereinbefore referred to, as to which there are no corresponding provisions in the English law.

3. Candidates are reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Colonial Acts or Rules passed or made more than six calendar months prior to the date of their examination.

4. Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive" unless otherwise expressed.

Articled Clerks will observe that on page 120 the dates upon which the Final Examinations will commence during 1900 are given, and also the latest dates upon which notice for such examinations may be lodged with the Prothonotary.

Intermediate Law Examinations will be held during each Term of 1900 upon the dates mentioned on page 120.

The subjects for examination, in accordance with Rule 6, will be as shown on page 137.

Intermediate Constitutional History Examinations during 1900.

EXAMINATIONS will be conducted by the Professor of History of the University of Sydney on the 20st February, 9th May, 1st August, and 31st October.

The books appointed by the Judges for the Constitutional History Examination are as follows:--

Hallam's Constitutional History; Hallam's Middle Ages, 5th, 6th, and 8th chapters; Creasy on the Constitution; and Stephen's Commentaries, Introduction and concluding chapter.

Notice of intention to proceed to the Constitutional History Examination should be lodged with the Secretary of the Board at latest before the beginning of the Term during which the examination will be held. The notice should state the name of the candidate in full. The amount of the fees, £2 10s. 6d., should accompany the notice.

Articled Clerks residing in the country, who are desirous of being examined in Constitutional History at the town where they reside, are requested to communicate with the Professor of History, and submit to him the names of one or more responsible gentlemen who are prepared to supervise the examination. In all cases they must forward sufficient information and particulars to satisfy the Professor of History that the proposed supervisors are reputable.

Candidates will be notified as to the result of this examination by the Secretary to the Board.

Preliminary Examination for Articled Clerks.

IN accordance with the regulations of the Supreme Court, candidates are required to pass an examination in the subjects of the Matriculation Examination.

Examinations are held at the University in the months of April, July, and November, and the dates of such examinations are shown on page 120.

The authors set for the Examination in April, 1900, are the same as those prescribed for the Matriculation Examination in March, 1900.

For the Examinations in July and November, 1900, and April, 1901, the authors are the same as those set for the Matriculation Examination of March, 1901, and so on in future years.

The fees for this Examination (£5 10s. 6d.) are payable to the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, whose receipt must be forwarded to the Registrar of the University not less than seven days before the first day of examination.

Candidates for the Law Matriculation Examination will accordingly find it indispensable to acquaint themselves with the following information in reference to the ordinary Matriculation Examination.

Candidates for Matriculation are required to pass a satisfactory Examination in Latin, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, and one of the following subjects:—Greek, French, German. Proficiency in writing English is also taken into account.

Compulsory Subjects.

1. LATIN.—Translation into English of passages from set authors and of Latin passages at sight, and translation of simple English sentences into Latin. Candidates are expected to show an accurate knowledge of Latin accidence.
2. ARITHMETIC.
3. ALGEBRA.—To quadratic equations involving one unknown quantity.
4. GEOMETRY.—Euclid, Books I, II, and III.

Optional Subjects.

- (a) GREEK.—An Examination similar to that in Latin.
- (b) FRENCH.—An Examination similar to that in Latin.
- (c) GERMAN.—An Examination similar to that in Latin.

Subjects set for March and April, 1900.

LATIN.—Cicero Pro Muraena (Heitland, Cambridge).

GREEK.—Xenophon, Anabasis, Book II (Pretor, Cambridge), or Demosthenes, de Pace, 2nd and 3rd Philippics, and De Chersneso (Abbott and Matheson, Oxford).

FRENCH.—Balzac, Ursule Mirouët (Whittaker).

GERMAN.—Auerbach, Schwarzwälder Dorfgeschichten (Whittaker).

Subjects set for July and November, 1900, and for March and April, 1901.

LATIN.—Livy, Book XXVI (Nicholls, Angus, & Robertson).

GREEK.—No special Greek Book will be set. Candidates will be required to translate passages of Greek at sight, and to translate simple English sentences into Greek. The knowledge of Greek required will be such as may be gained in the course of reading a book of Xenophon, or some other writer of simple Attic prose.

FRENCH.—Michaud, La Premierè Croisade (Macmillan).

GERMAN.—Elster, Zevischen den Schlachten (Macmillan).

Friday, the 9th day of March, A.D. 1900.

s 8 and 21 of the Rules of the 24th September, 1891, and the Rule of the December, 1895, relating to the admission of Barristers are hereby rescinded, the following Rules are made and promulgated in lieu thereof and in addition said Rules:—

1. All examinations shall be held during the second week in Term at such place and time and subject to such conditions as the Board may appoint and direct: Provided that the Board may, if it think fit, determine upon any other time for the holding of such examinations.
2. The preceding Rule shall not affect in any way examinations held by the University of Sydney and shall not apply to a student-at-law who is proceeding to the examination of Bachelor of Laws in the University of Sydney.
3. If in any examination under Appendix A the answers of the candidate have not been "Very Satisfactory" as to two of the subjects or "Satisfactory" as to three of the subjects, a second examination, if allowed by the Board, shall extend to all the subjects.
4. If in any examination under Appendix B the answers of the candidate have not been "Very Satisfactory" as to one of the subjects or "Satisfactory" as to two of the subjects, a second examination, if allowed by the Board, shall extend to all the subjects.
5. If in any examination under Appendix C the answers of the candidate have not been "Very Satisfactory" as to two of the subjects or "Satisfactory" as to three of the subjects, a second examination, if allowed by the Board, shall extend to all the subjects.
6. A candidate shall pay for a second examination, in three subjects the sum of Fifteen guineas, in two subjects the sum of Ten guineas, and in one subject the sum of Five guineas, and in each case shall pay to the Secretary a fee of One guinea, which shall be retained by him.
