SETTING DOWN CAUSES AT LAW.

7. To the extent limited for each day as next mentioned, Causes shall be set down consecutively only. No more than four Causes shall be set down for any day for Trial by a Jury of four persons, nor more than two Causes for Trial by a Special Jury, or three Causes by a Common Jury: Provided that an additional number of Causes, not exceeding two, may be set down for any day, if the Prothonotary shall see fit.

8. For each day of the Sittings for Causes there shall be three separate Cause Lists, which will be taken respectively in the Banco and in No. 1 and No. 2, Jury Courts. And until all Lists have been filled, in accordance with the preceding Rule, no Cause shall (except by leave of the Prothonotary, approved of in writing by a Judge) be set down in any List for any subsequent day.

JURIES OF TWELVE.

 Provided that Causes for Trial by Juries of Twelve (whether Special or Common Jurors) shall be set down for such days only as the Prothonotary shall in each case direct.

POSTPONEMENT.

10. When any Sittings for Causes are postponed, the date for the trial of any Cause, which has been specially fixed, shall also be postponed for the same number of days as that for which the Sittings have been postponed, unless the Judge shall otherwise order.

CAUSES UNCONCLUDED DURING THE SITTINGS.

11. Any Cause, not concluded on the last day of the Sittings, may be continued on such day or days as the Presiding Judge shall think fit.

TRANSFERRING CAUSES.

12. Causes, on the List of any Court, may be transferred to the List of any other, by order of a Judge, for Trial on the day next but one following, or any later day: Provided that no such day shall be earlier than that for which the Cause was first entered.

REMANETS GENERALLY.

13. Remanets from any Sitting shall have precedence over other Causes; and shall be set down by the Prothonotary, each according to its appropriate List, for the next Sittings.

CAUSES ON CIRCUIT.

14. Causes for Trial in the Circuit Courts, respectively, shall be entered for the day fixed for holding the Circuit in the Law Almanae annexed hereto. But whenever it shall appear to the Chief Justice or to the Judge intending to hold any Circuit Court, that it will not be convenient to hear the Civil Causes (if any) set down for trial at that Court on the day named for such Causes in the Calendar for the time being, it shall be competent to the Chief Justice or to such Judge, not less than sixteen days before the day which shall have been fixed by the Calendar for opening the said Court, to appoint some other day for the trial of such Causes, by direction to the Prothonotary, and the Prothonotary shall thereupon forthwith give notice of such appointment to the Solicitors in the said Causes or to their town agents, and also to the Sheriff, so that the Civil Jury may be summoned or receive notification accordingly, and all notices already given between the parties shall hold good and be applied to the day so specially appointed, and all notices and subpomas to be thereafter given or issued shall be given or issued for that day. 15. If there shall be no Civil Causes set down and notice of trial given and notified to the Prothonotary for any Circuit Court, up to the sixteenth day before the day named in the Calendar for the time being for the trial of Civil Causes thereat, no jury shall be summoned to such Court for the trial of Civil Issues without the leave of a Judge, and it shall be the duty of the Prothonotary to give notice to the Sheriff accordingly.

CROWN CASES RESERVED.

16. Special Cases reserved on any Criminal Trial, when received by the Prothonotary, shall be set down for hearing on the next ensuing Friday on which the Court shall sit, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

MOTIONS NISI FOR NEW TRIAL.

17. All Causes in which the usual Memorandum has been filed of a Motion Nisi for a New Trial, shall be entered in the order of filing; and (subject to the provisions of the Rules of the 21st May, 1888) shall be called on in that order on every day in Term until disposed of.

PARTIES NOT READY TO PROCEED.

18. Every case so called on, in which no Counsel shall move, shall (unless the Court extends the time) be struck out of the Paper—with leave to the adverse Party to sign Judgment. And the like, where a Rule Nisi has been granted, and the Moving Party is not prepared to proceed.

FILED MEMORANDUM NECESSARY.

19. A filed Memorandum shall in all cases be necessary under the Rules of the 19th August, 1861, and at the time of filing such Memorandum the party filing same shall lodge with the Prothonotary three additional copies thereof; but where the Cause shall have ended during the Term, or within four days preceding the Term, no Motion in pursuance of such Memorandum need be made earlier than the fourth day after the filing thereof.

RULES NISI FOR NEW TRIAL.

20. Every Rule Nisi for a New Trial shall be entered in the Term Book as soon as granted, and called on in the order in which it was granted; and the Moving Party shall in all cases begin, and the Party showing cause follow-one Counsel having the reply.

21. Every such Rule shall be taken out, filed in triplicate, and served within seven days after it has been granted, otherwise it shall be held to have lapsed, and the Prothonotary shall thereupon strike the case out of the Term Book.

MOTIONS ON NOTICE.

22. All Motions on Notice shall be entered in the Term Paper by the Prothonotary in the order in which they are filed, and shall come on for hearing in the said order.

PRECEDENCE OF BUSINESS.

23. Subject to Rule 3. Motions Nisi for New Trials will, on every day except Priday, have precedence of all other business. On Fridays Criminal and other Crown Cases will have precedence. Cn Mondays and on Thursdays Motions generally will have precedence, then appeals in cases of emergency in interlocutory motions in the Equity. Bankruptcy, Probate, and Divorce jurisdictions; then Motions on Notice, and then Motions. On Tuesdays and Wednesdays New Trial Motions will be heard. On Fridays Demurrers, Special Cases, and District Court Appeals will be heard. By leave of the Court, Common Motions may be taken on any day.

ORDER OF BUSINESS GENERALLY.

24. On every day, subject to the preceding Rule, all Matters in the Term Faper for argumentshall be entered, and called on and heard, in the order of their date. Rules Nisi for New Trials will be classed under this Rule. All other Rules to show cause (unless the Court shall otherwise order) will be entered for and heard on some Monday or Thursday only.

VACATION BUSINESS.

25. During the Long Vacation, from the commencement thereof to the 31st January following, both days inclusive, except as in the next Rule provided, time shall not run at Law or in Equity, nor shall any business other than that specified in the following Rules be taken without the leave of a Judge; but after the said 31st January, and throughout the Short Vacation, time shall run both at Law and in Equity.

26. During the Long Vacation, from the commencement thereof to the 31st January following, both days inclusive, in any action in which the Writ has been specially endorsed in pursuance with the provisions of section 24 of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1899, all steps and proceedings in respect of such actions may be taken and time shall run at Law.

27. During the period in the preceding Rule mentioned, Causes may be set down, and notices of Trial, and to admit or produce documents, may be given, and all Writs may be issued, executed, and returned; Judgment may be signed in all cases when the time which must expire before same can be signed has expired before vacation begins; and in every case Costs may be taxed if the Taxing Officers shall deem it necessary; and all necessary proceedings may be taken for the purposes of an Appeal, or for obtaining or dissolving any Injunction. The memorandum required to be filed, in pursuance of Rule 4 of the 19th August, 18ef, must be filed within the times respectively limited by such Rule, notwithstanding Vacation. And Summonses in cases of emergency may be returnable in Chambers on any Wednesday.

CHAMBER BUSINESS.

28. Chamber Business at Law will be taken on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at 10 o'clock, except during the sittings for the trial of Causes and during Term, when the Chamber business will be taken at 9:30 a.m.: Provided that a Summons may be returnable on any other day by order of a Judge.
29. Every Summons returnable on a Monday shall be served on the party whose attendance is required before 1 o'clock of the preceding Friday afternoon, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

30. No Chamber application will be entertained on any day, in or out of Term (except in cases of emergency) after 1 o'clock.

SATURDAYS.

31. There will be no Sitting of the Court in Sydney (except for the trial of Prisoners and except the last day of Term) on any Saturday: Provided that any Argument or Trial, not concluded on Friday, may be continued on Saturday, if the Court or Presiding Judge shall think fit.

Board any three shall be a quorum; and all members of such Board shall continue in office until their successors shall have been appointed.

- 10. No future Articled Clerk shall be admitted to the Final Examinations until an interval of not less than twelve months shall have elapsed after he shall have passed the Second Intermediate Examination required by these Rules.
- 11. If any Articled Clerk shall fail to pass at an Examination required of him, whether Intermediate or Final, he may from time to time apply for and shall be allowed a Re-examination after three calendar months from any such failure. (a)
- 12. No Articled Clerk shall be admitted to practise unless he shall produce Certificates of his having passed to the satisfaction of the Examiners in all the Examinations required of him by these Rules.
- 13. The Board shall appoint one day at least in every Term for holding an Intermediate Examination in Law.
- 14. Final Examinations shall be held at the Supreme Court House, on such days, being within the last ten days of every Term, as the Board of Examiners shall appoint.
- 15. Every person applying for Examination shall attend the said Board of Examiners at the Supreme Court House, at such time or times as shall be appointed for that purpose by the said Board.
- 16. Repealed by Rule of 20th September, 1893, which provides: Persons applying for Final Examination in Law shall submit to be examined by the said Board, and must pass in each and all of the following subjects—
 - 1. Real Property and Conveyancing.
 - 2. Common Law and Evidence.
 - 3. Equity, Divorce and Matrimonial, and Ecclesiastical Law.
 - 4. Criminal Law.
 - 5. Practice of the Supreme Court in all its Jurisdictions.
 - Jurisdiction and Practice of the Inferior Courts. (b)
- 17. The Board of Examiners shall from time to time, with the approval of the Judges, notify the Books and portions of books in which they intend, after not less than six months thereafter, to conduct the Final Examinations in Law.

18. If the Examiner conducting the Examination of an Articled Clerk in History, under these Rules, shall be satisfied with the answers given by him, he shall certify the same under his hand, in the following terms, viz.:—

To the Prothonotary of the Supreme Court :-

I being the Examiner appointed to conduct the Examination in History of A.B. as a Solicitor's Articled Clerk, do hereby certify that I have examined the said A.B. in History, and that he has passed a satisfactory Examination therein.

19 and 20 repealed (a)

- 21. The Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court, or such other person as the Judges may from time to time appoint, shall be and act as Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and shall attend all meetings of the Board and keep minutes of all its proceedings and conduct its correspondence, and perform such other duties as the Board may require.
- 22. Every Articled Clerk shall, before being admitted to either of the Intermediate Examinations hereby required, pay into the hands of the Prothonotary an Examination Fee of Five pounds, and shall also, before admission to his Final Examination in Law, pay a fee of Ten pounds (b) And such respective fees shall be by such Prothonotary paid rateably to the Examiners by whom the respective Examinations shall be conducted. (c)

Notices, &c.

- 23. Every Articled Clerk desirous of being examined at an Intermediate Examination shall give notice in writing of such his desire to the Prothonotary, before the commencement of the Term during which he desires to be examined.
- 24. Every person not previously admitted as a Solicitor, and desirous of being admitted under any of the last three clauses of Rule 3, shall, in addition to the notices hereafter required, give at the least one month's notice to the Board of Examiners of his intention to apply for Final Examination, by leaving the notice with the Prothonotary, which notice shall also state his place or places of residence, and service for the last two years; and before any such person shall be admitted, he shall procure the Certificate of the Examiners of his having passed the Final Examination required by these Rules.
- 25. Any person previously admitted as aforesaid, and desirous of being admitted under either of the first two clauses of Rule 3, shall at the time of giving the notice hereafter required, file with the Prothonotary the Affidavit on which he seeks for admission, together with the Certificate of his previous admission, which Affidavit shall contain the following allegations, viz. :- Deponent's admission in one of the aforesaid Courts (a); that he has not done or committed any act or thing which would cause his name to be struck off the Roll of the said Court; and that to the best of his knowledge and belief his name still remains on the said Roll; that the copy of the Certificate annexed to his said affidavit is a true copy of his admission, and that he is the person named therein; the time when he ceased to practise; the time of his arrival in the Colony; that he has actually resided in this Colony for the preceding three months, the mode of his employment from the time he ceased to practise, and a reference to one or more respectable householder or householders resident within the Colony, to whom he is known; and the Rule (b) for the admission of such last mentioned person shall be drawn up on reading such Affidavit, which Rule shall be conditional for twelve months, unless the Judges shall see cause to the contrary.

26. Every person who shall intend to apply for admission as a Solicitor of this Court (whether previously admitted elsewhere or not) shall, before the commencement of the Term in which he shall so apply, cause his name and place of abode, written in legible character, to be affixed in the Office of the Supreme Court, and also in the vestibule of the Courthouse; and shall also cause notice of his intended application to be three several times published in two public newspapers of Sydney, during such Term, and no admission shall take place except only on the last day of such Term.

27. Every person applying at the expiration of his Articles to be admitted a Solicitor of the Court shall, before the connencement of the Term in which he is desirous of being admitted, leave or cause to be left with the Prothonotary his Articles of Clerkship (c), and also any assignment which may have been made thereof, and the Certificates of his having passed the required Examinations, together with answers to the several questions in the Appendix hereunto annexed, signed by the applicant, and also by the Solicitor or Solicitors with whom he shall have served his clerkship, and by two respectable householders to whom he is personally known. (d)

28. In case the applicant shall show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners why the preceding regulation cannot be fully complied with, it shall be in the power of the said Board, upon sufficient proof being given of the same, to dispense with any part of the said regulation that they may think fit or reasonable. 29. Every person applying for admission shall also, if required, sign and leave, or cause to be left, with the Prothonotary, answers in writing to such other written or printed questions as shall be proposed by the Board of Examiners touching his service and conduct; and shall also, if required, attend the said Board personally for the purpose of giving further explanations touching the same; and shall also, if required, procure the attendance of the Solicitor or Solicitors with whom he shall have served his clerkship as aforesaid; and also, if required, procure the attendance of such other person or persons as the Board may direct, to answer either personally or in writing any questions touching such service or conduct, or shall make proof to the satisfaction of the said Board of his inability to procure the same.

Miscellaneous.

30. Every Solicitor having been admitted on the Roll of this Court and ceasing to practise for twelve months continuously may be struck off the Roll, and shall not be readmitted without a Term's notice of his intention to apply for such readmission; and at the time of giving such notice shall cause to be filed the Affidavit on which he seeks to be readmitted, with the Prothonotary, which Affidavit shall contain, in addition to the particulars now required, a statement of his place or places of abode, during the last preceding year, and how he has employed his time since he ceased to practise; and the rule for readmission of such person shall be drawn up on reading such Affidavit (a).

31. No Solicitor of the Court shall employ as a clerk, assistant, or writer, in or about his business as a Solicitor, any person who hath been or who shall be convicted of any felony or of wilful and corrupt perjury, or subornation of perjury, or common barratry.

32. Nothing in these Rules contained shall in any way interfere with, alter, or prejudice the authority of the Court to suspend or remove from the Rolls of Solicitors any person who shall, in the opinion of the Court, have been guilty of misconduct or of malpractice justifying such suspension or removal.

Commencement of Rules.

33. These Rules shall come into force on the first day of January, A.D. 1878, save only so far as they relate to the Matriculation Examinations or their equivalent as required by these Rules; the provisions in respect of which shall not come into operation until after the next Matriculation and Public Examinations of the University of Sydney.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Tuesday, the 13th day of November, A.D. 1888.

1. After the first day of January next, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors, any articled clerk may, provided he shall in due course have passed all the necessary Examinations, proceed to his Final Examination in Law during the last year of his articles. But he shall not be entitled to give notice of his intention to apply for admission as a Solicitor until after the expiration of the term of such articles (a).

 A Candidate shall pay a fee of two pounds for every Reexamination in either of the Intermediate Examinations, and a fee of five pounds for every Re-examination in the Final Law Examination.

(a) See Rule 2 of 10 September, 1891, page 138.

3. All fees for Examinations or Re-examinations under any of the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors shall be paid to the Prothonotary at the time a Candidate shall give notice of his intention to proceed to Examination.

REGULÆ GENERALES (a).

Wednesday, the 25th day of June, A.D. 1890.

1. Any person who has been admitted as a Barrister of this Court, and who has not had less than five years' practice as such Barrister, and who has procured his name to be removed from the Roll of Barristers of the said Court with a view to becoming a Solicitor, and has obtained from two practising Barristers of this Court a certificate of his being a fit and proper person to practise as a Solicitor, shall not be required to serve any period under Articles of Clerkship, nor to pass any of the intermediate examinations required by the Rules of this Court relating to the admission of Solicitors, but shall be entitled to be admitted and enrolled as a Solicitor on passing the final examination required by the said Rules.

2. Any person applying for final examination and admission as aforesaid shall give all notices and pay all fees as are now prescribed by the said Rules to be given and paid by each applicant for final examination and admission as a Solicitor.

> FREDK. M. DARLEY, C.J. W. C. WINDEYER, J. J. GEO. LONG INNES, J. M. H. STEPHEN, J. WM. OWEN, J. W. J. FOSTER, J. C. J. MANNING, J.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales. Thursday, the 10th day of September, A.D. 1891.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors:—

 Any Articled Clerk who shall fail in either Intermediate or the Final Examination shall be allowed to proceed to reexamination during the Term following that in which he failed.

2. Any Articled Clerk seeking Admission as a Solicitor may, although his articles do not expire till after the commencement of the Term in which he seeks such admission, give all necessary notices before the commencement of such Term, and may, provided his articles shall have then expired, file his Master Solicitor's answers and certificate, his own answers, and the certificates as to his character by two householders at any time up to within seven days of the last day of Term.

In the Supreme Court of New South Wales. Friday, the 21st September, A.D. 1894.

1. No Certificate of Matriculation shall be recognised as sufficient unless the person producing it shall have passed in all the subjects required by the University of Sydney for intending Articled Clerks.

2. After the 1st day of October next, the subjects for the final examination of Articled Clerks under these Rules shall be arranged as follows :-

Section 1.—Real Property and Conveyancing.

Section 2.—Equity, Divorce and Matrimonial, and Ecclesiastical Law.

Section 3.—Common Law, Evidence, and Criminal Law. Section 4.—Practice of the Supreme Court in all its Jurisdictions. Jurisdiction and Practice of Inferior Courts.

(a) Every person (being a graduate) hereafter entering Articles of Clerkship shall present himself for examination as follows:-

Intermediate Law.—6 months after date of Articles.

Section 1.— 12 months after passing Intermediate Law Examination.

Sections 2 and 3 .- 12 months after passing section 1.

Section 4.— 6 months after passing sections 2 and 3.

 (α) Every person (not being a graduate) hereafter entering Articles of Clerkship shall present himself for examination as follows :-

History Examination.—6 months after date of Articles. Intermediate Law.— 6 months after passing History Examination.

12 months after passing Interme-diate Law Examination. Section 1.-

Section 2.— 12 months after passing section 1. Section 3.--12 months after passing section 2, Section 4.— 12 months after passing section 3.

⁽a) Repealed; see now Rules of 6th December, 1900, page 145.

5. (a) If any Articled Clerk shall fail to pass any examination, whether Intermediate or Final, he may from time to time apply for and shall be allowed a re-examination in the Term following such failure: Provided, however, that in case of a second failure he shall not be allowed, until after the expiration of the time hereinafter mentioned from his passing such examination, to proceed to his next subject, that is to say in the case of an Intermediate Examination six months and in the case of a Final Examination nine months.

6. Any Articled Clerk, being a graduate, who shall reside more than 200 miles from Sydney, may elect to take his examinations in sections 1, 2, and 3 together, and if not a graduate, he may elect to take his examinations in sections 1 and 2 together, and subsequently in sections 3 and 4 together: Provided that he shall not be allowed to proceed to such combined examinations until the time fixed for the latest section in such combination.

7. Whenever, in accordance with the requirements of these or any existing Rules, a certain period must elapse between examinations, an Articled Clerk may nevertheless proceed to any examination, provided it he held no more than twenty-one days before the earliest date at which he could, under the said Rules, proceed to such examination.

 The same notices to proceed to examination shall be given under these Rules as are required to be given under the Rules at present in force.

9. Each Articled Clerk shall pay a fee of two pounds ten shillings for every examination or re-examination in each section of the Final Examination, and to the Secretary at the same time, a fee of half a guinea (subject to Rule 3 of 26th September, 1888). All such fees shall be paid to the Secretary at the time when the Articled Clerk shall give notice of his intention to proceed to examination or re-examination.

10. Any Clerk articled prior to the date of these Rules may avail himself of the provisions of these Rules to pass any of the examinations hereby prescribed which correspond with the period of his articles. And any such Clerk who has entered the last year of his articles, or has completed his articles may, provided he shall in due course have passed all previous examinations, proceed to examination in sections 1, 2, and 3 of the Final Examination and subsequently to examination in section 4: Provided, however, that six months must clapse after he has passed sections 1, 2, and 3 before he can proceed to section 4.

11. After passing all the subjects in each section of any examination an Articled Clerk shall be entitled to a certificate in the form A annexed, and after passing all examinations and having, on the expiration of his articles, complied with all the requirements of the Rules, he shall be entitled to a certificate in the form B annexed.

12. Repealed by Rule of 3rd November, 1897, which provides: The Professor of Law in the University of Sydney for the time being shall be ex officio a member of the Board of Examiners, constituted under Rule 9 of the Rules relating to the admission of Solicitors, and he, or such other person as the Judges may from time to time appoint, shall also be President of the said Board. All questions set in the Law Examinations shall be first considered and approved by the Board, and all answers to such questions shall be considered and marks allotted by two members of the Board, one of whom, in respect of sections 1, 2, and 3, shall be the Professor of Law. Provided, however, that, in case of need, and with the approval of the Board, the duties of the President, in respect of either one or more of the subjects comprised in the said sections, may be delegated by the President to any other member or members of the Board.

13. The degree of Bachelor of Laws of the University of Sydney obtained by an Articled Clerk who has attended the law lectures appointed by the said University, shall exempt him from passing the Intermediate Law Examination and sections 1, 2, and 3 of the Final Examination: Provided, however, that he shall be required to pass section 4 of the Final Examination, and to give all notices and payall fees as required by the existing Rules in the case of an Articled Clerk proceeding to Final Examination.

Friday, the 9th day of March, 1900.

1. In addition to the persons mentioned in Rule three of the Rules of the 18th December, 1877, relating to the admission of Attorneys, the following persons shall be eligible for admission as Solicitors of the Court, namely:—

Any person who has or who hereafter shall have completed the term of ten years of elerkship in the office or offices of some one or more Solicitors practising in the Colony of New South Wales and who has for at least five of such ten years been a Managing Clerk in such office or offices.

2. Any such person must pass the Intermediate Law and Final Law Examinations prescribed for Articled Clerks, for the purpose of which examinations, as regards notices and payment of fees, such person shall be deemed to be an Articled Clerk.

 No person shall be allowed to present himself for the Final Law Examination until at least six months have elapsed from the time of his passing the Intermediate Law Examination.

- Before any such person can be admitted to the Intermediate Law Examination he must obtain the permission of the Judges of the Supreme Court to be so examined.
- 5. To obtain such permission such person must apply, through the Secretary of the Solicitor's Admission Board, to the Judges, and together with such application must lodge the following documents:—
 - (a) A certificate from each Solicitor with whom such person has been a Clerk to show that the applicant is entitled to apply and that his character and knowledge of his work are such as to render him fit to be admitted as a Solicitor.
 - (b) A certificate from two Counsel of five years' standing to whom the applicant is personally known as to his competency and character.
 - (e) Certificates from two householders to whom the applicant has been known for at least five years, as to his character and fitness to be admitted as a Solicitor.
 - Provided, however, that the giving or withholding of such permission shall be in the absolute discretion of the said Judges, and that in any case further or other certificates may be required.
- 6. Any such person who has passed the Intermediate Law Examination shall be entitled to proceed to the Final Law Examination in the same manner as if he had been articled previously to the 21st September, 1894, and his Articles had expired.

Notice as to the Intermediate and Final Law Examinations.

- The text-books for these examinations are prescribed mainly for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales on all subjects treated of in such text-books.
- 2. In addition to the prescribed text-books, the attention of candidates is in some cases specially directed to such of the local statutes hereinbefore referred to, as to which there are no corresponding provisions in the English law.
- 3. Candidates are reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Colonial Acts or Rules passed or made more than six calendar months prior to the date of their examination.
- Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive" unless otherwise expressed.

Articled Clerks will observe that on page 126 the dates upon which the Final Examinations will commence during 1901 are given, and also the latest dates upon which notice for such examinations may be lodged with the Prothonotary.

Intermediate Law Examinations will be held during each Term of 1901 upon the dates mentioned on page 126.

The subjects for examination, in accordance with Rule 6, will be as shown on page 146.
