GENERAL RULES APPLICABLE TO EVERY YEAR.

PRECEDENCE OF BUSINESS.

495. Unless otherwise ordered, matters for hearing before the Full Court shall be taken in accordance with the following directions :

- (a) Any matter which, in the opinion of the Court, should be disposed of immediately, may be heard forthwith, or at such time as the Court appoints.
- (b) Criminal and other Crown cases will have precedence on Fridays.
- (c) Subject to the provisions of clause (a) hereof, Motions generally will have precedence on Mondays and Thursdays.

Subject to the preceding clauses, every matter in the Term paper will be heard in the order in which it is entered in the Term book.

CONFIRMATION OF ORDERS.

314. Notice must be given to the Prothonotary, on or before the Saturday preceding the commencement of each Term, of all intended applications for confirmation by the Court of orders made under and by virtue of Section 20 of the Act 1900, No. 35.

SETTING DOWN CAUSES AT LAW.

106. For each day of the Sittings for Causes there shall be three separate Cause Lists, which shall be taken respectively in the Banco and in No. 1 and No. 2 Jury Courts.

107. To the extent limited for each day as next mentioned, causes shall be set down consecutively only. No more than four causes shall be set down for any day for trial in Sydney by a Judge without a Jury, or by a Jury of four persons, nor more than one cause for trial by a Jury of twelve: Provided that an additional number of causes, not exceeding two, may be set down for any day, if the Prothonotary sees fit.

108. Until all Lists have been filled, in accordance with the last preceding Rule, no cause shall, except by leave of the Prothonotary, be set down in any List for any subsequent day.

JURIES OF TWELVE.

109. Provided that causes for trial by juries of twelve shall be set down for such days only as the Prothonotary shall in each case direct.

TRANSFERRING CAUSES.

110. Causes, on the List of any Court, may be transferred to the List of any other, by order of a Judge, for trial on the day next but one following, or any later day: Provided that no such day shall be earlier than that for which the cause was first entered.

CAUSES ON CIRCUIT.

111. Causes for trial in any Circuit Court shall be entered for the day fixed in the Law Almanac for holding such Circuit Court. But whenever it appears to the Chief Justice, or to the Judge, intending to hold any Circuit Court, that it will not be convenient to hear the civil causes (if any) set down for trial at that Court, on the day so fixed, the Chief Justice, or such Judge, may, not less than sixteen days before the day so fixed, appoint some other day for the trial of such causes, by direction to the Prothonotary; and the Prothonotary shall thereupon forthwith give notice of such appointment to the solicitors in the said causes or to their town agents, and also to the Sheriff; and all notices already given between the parties shall hold good and be applied to the day so specially appointed, and all notices and subpoenas to be thereafter given or issued shall be given or issued for that day.

127. If no civil cause has been set down and notice of trial given and notified to the Prothonotary for any Circuit Court, up to the sixteenth day before the day named in the Law Almanac for the time being for the trial of civil causes thereat, no jury shall be summoned to such Court for the trial of civil issues, without the leave of a Judge, and the Prothonotary shall give notice to the Sheriff accordingly.

POSTPONEMENT.

113. When any Sittings for causes are postponed, the date for the trial of any cause, specially fixed, shall also be postponed for the same number of days as that for which the Sittings have been postponed, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

CAUSES UNCONCLUDED DURING THE SITTINGS.

145. Any cause, not concluded on the last day of the Sittings, may be continued on such day or days as the presiding Judge shall think fit.

REMANETS.

114. All causes remaining untried at any sittings shall be set down by the Prothonotary, each according to its appropriate list for the then next Sittings; and no new notice of trial, or to produce documents, shall be necessary. Every such cause shall have precedence over causes previously set down for those Sittings.

APPLICATION FOR NEW TRIAL.

150. Every application for a nonsuit, or for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, or for judgment non obstante veredicto, or for a venire de novo, or to enter a verdict, or to increase or reduce the amount of the verdict, shall be by notice of motion, and no rule nisi order to show cause or formal proceedings other than such notice of motion shall be made or taken. The moving party shall within eight days (or in causes tried at Circuit Courts within fourteen days) after the trial file a notice of appeal, together with all affidavits to be used in support of such motion. Provided that any such affidavits may, by leave of the Court or a Judge, be filed at a later date.

151. Every such notice of motion shall state the day or days on which the cause was tried, the verdict given or other termination of the trial, the motion intended to be made, and the grounds on which it will be made; and when the party had counsel at the trial shall be signed by one of such counsel.

151*a*. A copy of every such notice of motion shall be left at the chambers of the Judge before whom the cause was tried on the day on which it is filed, and a copy thereof, and of any affidavit that may be filed in support thereof, shall on the day on which it is filed be served upon each opposing party or upon each solicitor on the record.

152. On or before the last day limited for filing such notice of motion, the moving party shall order a copy of the notes of the Judge before whom the cause was tried, and within eight days after receiving the same shall file a printed copy of such notes, and at the same time lodge three additional printed copies, and shall also within the same time serve four printed copies upon all parties upon whom a copy of the notice of appeal is required to be served: Provided that a Judge may on such conditions as he thinks fit extend the times for ordering filing, lodging, and serving copies of such notes, or may dispense with the printing or ordering of such notes.

154. Every such notice of motion shall be for the first day on which the Court sits in Banco after the expiration of sixteen days from the filing of such notice: Provided that no matter in which printed copies of the Judge's notes have to be filed and served shall be called on for hearing before such copies have been filed and served, or the time for so doing has expired, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise directs.

155. The moving party will be restricted upon the hearing to the grounds specified in the notice of motion.

Notice to Candidates for the Bar Examination under Appendix C.

1. The English text-books prescribed for this Examination are, in great measure, prescribed for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but, on all subjects where the law in force in New South Wales differs from the English law, candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales. Text-books or parts of text-books which require to be read in connection with the local statutes are marked with an asterisk.

2. Candidates are reminded that English Statutes passed after the 25th July, 1828, are not in force in this State, except in cases where the enactment has been made binding by the Imperial Parliament, either expressly or by necessary implication. At the same time, a considerable number of English Statutes passed after that date (such as the English Wills Act, 1837), have been expressly adopted by the local Legislature: whilst a considerable number of other local enactments are based on similar enactments passed in the United Kingdom. As to how far law in force in England prior to the 25th July, 1828, applies in New South Wales, reference may be made to Webb's "Imperial Law." As to how far English Statutes have been adopted by, or embodied in, local legislation, reference may be made to Curlewis' "Table of Statutes."

3. In cases where local Statutes are expressly prescribed as subjects for examination, the examination will be confined, so far as possible, to the general tenor and essential, or more important, provisions of the Statutes referred to: or, in other words, to such matters as would find a place in a student's text-book. The English text-book will serve, to some extent, as a guide in this matter. Candidates may also obtain a few copies of previous papers, for the purpose of guidance, on applying to the Secretary to the Board.

4. Candidates are reminded that the State Laws on some of the subjects included in these examinations are liable to be superseded by Federal Legislation: whilst on other subjects the existing Acts are likely to be displaced by Consolidated Acts. Candidates are further reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Acts or Rules relating to the subjects of these examinations passed or made by either the State or the Federal Parliament more than six calendar months prior to the date at which such examinations may be held.

5. Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive" unless otherwise expressed.

19. Notice to Candidates for the Intermediate and Final Examinations in Law.

1. The English text-books prescribed for these examinations are, in a great measure, prescribed for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but, on all subjects where the law in force in New South Wales differs from the English law, candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales. Text-books, or parts of books which require to be read in connection with local statutes, are marked with an asterisk.

2. Candidates are reminded that English statutes, passed after the 25th July, 1828, are not in force in this State, except in cases where the enactment has been made binding by the Imperial Parliament, either expressly or by necessary implication. At the same time, a considerable number of English statutes passed after that date (such as the English Wills Act, 1837), have been expressly adopted by the local legislature; whilst a considerable number of local enactments have been based on similar enactments previously passed in the United Kingdom. As to how far law in force in England prior to 25th July, 1828, applies in New South Wales, reference may be made to Webb's "Imperial Law." As to how far English statutes have been adopted by, or embodied in, local legislation, reference may be made to Curlewis' "Tables of Statutes."

3. In cases where local statutes are expressly prescribed as subjects for examination, the examination will be confined, so far as possible, to the general tenor and essential or more important provisions of the statutes referred to; or, in other words, to such matters as would find a place in a student's text-book. The English text-books will serve, to some extent, as a guide in this matter.

4. Candidates are reminded that the State laws on some of the subjects included in these examinations are liable to be superseded by Federal legislation; whilst on other subjects the existing Acts are likely to be displaced by Consolidated Acts. Candidates are further reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Acts or Rules relating to the subjects of these examinations passed or made by either the State or the Federal Parliament more than six calendar months prior to the date at which such examinations may be held.

5. Candidates are also advised, prior to entering on their studies for the final examination, to make themselves acquainted with the general tenor of both the Interpretation Act, 1897 (New South Wales), and the Acts Interpretation Act, 1901 (Commonwealth); whilst they are also reminded that the interpretation of Imperial statutes, applicable in either State or Commonwealth, is governed by the Interpretation Act, 1889 (Imperial).

6. Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive," unless otherwise expressed.
