CONTINUATION OF ORDERS.

314. (19th November, 1930.)

- (1) Any party to any order made by a Judge under section 20 of the Supreme Court and Circuit Courts Act, 1900, may, on or before the first day of the next ensuing term or the next ensuing sitting day in banco of the Court as the case may be, file a praecipe for a rule continuing the order. Such praecipe shall contain the date upon which the order was made, the name of the Judge who made the order, and the nature of the order.
- (2) A rule of course continuing the order shall thereupon issue on the first day of the next ensuing term or the next ensuing sitting day in banco of the Court.
- (3) Where the order has been made with costs the rule shall be drawn up with costs.
- (4) Such rule may be taken out by either party to the order, but shall not be taken out without the leave of the Court or a Judge till the day following the day upon which it is issued.
- (5) If notice of appeal from such order is duly filed on or before the day upon which the rule is issued such rule shall be drawn up continuing the order until the Court otherwise directs.
- (6) Notice of appeal shall be served when service is necessary the same day as it is filed unless otherwise ordered by a Judge.

SETTING DOWN CAUSES AT LAW.

106. For each day of the sittings for Causes in Sydney there shall be three separate Causes Lists, to be called the No. 1 Causes List, the No. 2 Causes List and the No. 3 Causes List. These Lists shall be taken in such of the Jury Courts as the Prothonotary may appoint.

107. To the extent limited for each day as next mentioned, causes shall be set down consecutively only. No more than four causes shall be set down in any list for any day for trial in Sydney by a Judge without a Jury, or by a Jury of four persons, nor more than one cause for trial by a Jury of twelve: Provided that an additional number of causes, not exceeding four, may be set down for any day, if the Prothonotary sees fit.

108. Until all Lists have been filled, in accordance with the last preceding Rule, no cause shall, except by leave of the Prothonotary, be set down in any list for any subsequent day.

JURIES OF TWELVE.

109. Provided that causes for trial by juries of twelve shall be set down for such days only as the Prothonotary shall in each case direct.

TRANSFERRING CAUSES.

110. Causes, on the List of any Court, may be transferred to the List of any other, by order of a Judge, for trial on the day next following, or any later day: Provided that no such day shall be earlier than that for which the cause was first entered.

CAUSES ON CIRCUIT.

111. Causes for trial in any Circuit Court shall be set down for the day fixed in the Law Almanac for holding such Circuit Court. But whenever it appears to the Chief Justice, or to the Judge intending to hold any Circuit Court, that it will not be convenient to hear the civil causes (if any) set down for trial at that Court on the day so fixed; the Chief Justice, or such Judge, may, not less than sixteen days before the day so fixed, appoint some other day for the trial of such causes, by direction to the Prothonotary; and the Prothonotary shall thereupon forthwith give notice of such appointment to the solicitors in the said causes or to their town agents, and also to the Sheriff; and all notices already given between the parties shall hold good and be applied to the day so specially appointed, and all notices and subpoenas to be thereafter given or issued shall be given or issued for that day.

127. If no civil cause has been set down and notice of trial given and notified to the Prothonotary for any Circuit Court, up to the sixteenth day before the day named in the Law Almanac for the trial of civil causes thereat, no jury shall be summoned to such Court for the trial of civil issues without the leave of a Judge, and the Prothonotary shall give notice to the Sheriff accordingly.

POSTPONEMENT.

113. When any Sittings for causes are postponed, the date for the trial of any cause, specially fixed, shall also be postponed for the same number of days as that for which the Sittings have been postponed, unless a Judge shall otherwise order.

CAUSES UNCONCLUDED DURING THE SITTINGS.

145. Any cause, not concluded on the last day of the Sittings, may be continued on such day or days as the presiding Judge thinks fit.

REMANETS.

114. All causes remaining untried at any Sittings shall be set down by the Prothonotary, each according to its appropriate list for the then next sittings; and no new notice of trial, or to produce documents, shall be necessary. Every such cause shall have precedence over causes previously set down for those Sittings.

APPLICATION FOR NEW TRIAL.

150. Every application for a nonsuit, or for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, or for judgment non obstante veredicto, or for a venire de novo, or to enter a verdict, or to increase or reduce the amount of the verdict, shall be by notice of motion, and no rule nisi order to show cause or formal proceedings other than such notice of motion shall be made or taken. The moving party shall within fourteen days after the trial file a notice of appeal, together with all affidavits to be used in support of such motion. Provided that any such affidavits may, by leave of the Court or a Judge, be filed at a later date.

151. Every such notice of motion shall state the day or days on which the cause was tried, the verdict given or other termination of the trial, the motion intended to be made, and the grounds on which it will be made; and when the party had counsel at the trial shall be signed by one of such counsel.

151A. A copy of every such notice of motion shall be left at the chambers of the Judge before whom the cause was tried on the day on which it is filed, and a copy thereof, and of any affidavit that may be filed in support thereof, shall on the day on which it is filed be served upon each opposing party or upon each solicitor on the record.

151B. (15th September, 1925.) No direction, omission to direct or decision as to the admission or rejection of evidence given by the Judge presiding at the trial shall, without the leave of the Court, be allowed as a ground for such notice of motion unless objection was taken at the trial to the direction, omission or decision by the party on whose behalf the notice of motion has been filed.

152. (16th November, 1927.)

- (1) On or before the last day limited for filing such notice of motion the moving party shall order a copy of the notes of the evidence given at the trial and of the summing-up of the Judge.
- (2) Within fourteen days after receiving such copy or after being notified that it is available, such moving party shall file one and lodge three printed copies of such notes and summing-up, and of the pleadings, notice of appeal, and the exhibits, and shall within the same time, serve four copies upon all parties upon whom a copy of the notice of motion is required to be served.
- (3) Upon the application of either party a Judge on such terms as he thinks fit may extend the times for ordering, filing, lodging or serving such printed copies, or may dispense with the ordering or printing of such notes, summing-up, pleadings, notice of appeal, and exhibits, or any of them or any portion of them respectively, and may direct a greater or less number of printed or other copies to be lodged or served as aforesaid.
- (4) (16th May, 1935.) When exhibits are printed for the purposes of appeal they shall be arranged in a single chronological order and not in the order in which they were put in evidence on behalf of the respective parties.

154. (31 March, 1938.) Every such notice of motion shall be for the first day on which the Court sits in Banco, either in or out of term, after the expiration of sixteen days from the filing of such notice or for such earlier day as may be agreed upon in writing by the parties: Provided that no matter in which printed copies of the Judge's notes have to be filed and served shall be called on for hearing before such copies have been filed and served, or the time for so doing has expired, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise directs.

155. The moving party will be restricted upon the hearing to the grounds specified in the notice of motion.

157. The Associate of the Judge who tried the cause shall attend the Court on the hearing of the motion with the issues, exhibits, and other papers, and shall discharge thereafter the duties of the Prothonotary in respect of such motion until the same is disposed of.

PARTIES NOT READY TO PROCEED.

158. Where a notice of motion under Rule 150 hereof has been filed and no motion is made when the case is called on for hearing, the motion shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, be dismissed with costs.

STAY OF EXECUTION.

158A. Where any such notice of motion is filed it shall not operate as a stay of execution, except in cases where the Judge has reserved any point or given leave to move the Court in respect of any point.

VACATION BUSINESS.

- (j) Decrees nisi in the Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction of the Court may be made absolute.

(2) Every notice of motion for a new trial and every notice of appeal must be filed within the time limited by the Rules of Court notwithstanding vacation.

(2) (a) Any cause or matter may be declared urgent by a judge—

- (i) which is in the nature of a test case;
- (ii) the decision in which is likely to affect the settlement of other pending disputes or of matters likely to become disputes;
- (iii) the decision in which may help in the construction of Acts or rules of general application;
- (iv) where delay may seriously prejudice any of the parties or may cause serious inconvenience to the proposed witnesses;
- (v) which in the opinion of the judge to whom application is made requires to be immediately or promptly heard.

(b) Application to have a cause or matter declared urgent may be made during the last seven days of the December Sittings for the trial of causes, or thereafter to the Vacation Judge.

Notice to Candidates proceeding to Examination.

1. The English text-books prescribed for this Examination are, in great measure, prescribed for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination; but, on all subjects where the law in force in New South Wales differs from the English law, candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales. Text-books or parts of text-books which require to be read in connection with the local statutes are marked with an asterisk.

2. Candidates are reminded that English Statutes passed after the 25th July, 1828, are not in force in this State, except in cases where the enactment has been made binding by the Imperial Parliament, either expressly or by necessary implication. At the same time, a considerable number of English Statutes passed after that date (such as the English Wills Act, 1837), have been expressly adopted by the local Legislature; whilst a considerable number of other local enactments are based on similar enactments passed in the United Kingdom. As to how far law in force in England prior to the 25th July, 1828, applies in New South Wales, reference may be made to Webb's "Imperial Law." As to how far English Statutes have been adopted by, or embodied in, local legislation, reference may be made to Curlew's "Table of Statutes."

3. In cases where local Statutes are expressly prescribed as subjects for examination, the examination will be confined, so far as possible, to the general tenor and essential, or more important, provisions of the Statutes referred to; or, in other words, to such matters as would find a place in a student's text-book. The English text-book will serve, to some extent, as a guide in this matter. Candidates may also obtain a few copies of previous papers, for the purpose of guidance, on applying to the Secretary to the Board.

4. Candidates are reminded that the State Laws on some of the subjects included in these examinations are liable to be superseded by Federal Legislation: whilst on other subjects the existing Acts are likely to be displaced by Consolidated Acts. Candidates are further reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Acts or Rules relating to the subjects of these examinations passed or made by either the State or the Federal Parliament more than six calendar months prior to the date at which such examinations may be held.

5. Where chapters, sections or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive" unless otherwise expressed.

ARTICLED CLERKS.

Examinations for—

Last days for lodging fee and notice of intention to sit in Sydney.
15 April and 7 October.

Last days for lodging fee and notice of intention to sit at country centres.

ADMISSION OF SOLICITORS.

Last days to give notice of intention to apply for admission as a solicitor—15 February, 30 April, 26 July, and 22 October.

NOTIFICATION TO CANDIDATES OF CHANGES IN TYPE OF EXAMINATION PAPERS:

The Solicitors Admission Board advises candidates that at and after the examinations for the Second Term, 1943, it intends to modify its examination papers by reducing somewhat the number of questions in each paper and setting questions requiring a more thorough knowledge of principle and of important cases than has hitherto been expected. Candidates will be allowed some choice of question.

Section 2 of the Final Law Examination as from the same date will be examined in two papers, viz., a paper of three hours in Torts and a paper of two hours in Criminal Law and Practice.

C. T. HERBERT,
Secretary,
Solicitors Admission Board.

Notice to Candidates for the Intermediate and Final Examinations in Law.

1. The English text-books prescribed for these examinations are in a great measure, prescribed for the purpose of indicating the scope and subject matter of the examination: but, on all subjects where the law in force in New South Wales differs from the English Law, candidates are required to make themselves acquainted with the law in force in New South Wales. Text-books or parts of books which require to be read in connection with local statutes, are marked with an asterisk.

2. Candidates are reminded that English statutes, passed after the 25th July, 1828, are not in force in this State, except in cases where the enactment has been made binding by the Imperial Parliament, either expressly or by necessary implication. At the same time, a considerable number of English statutes passed after that date (such as the English Wills Act, 1837), have been expressly adopted by the local legislature; whilst a considerable number of local enactments have been based on similar enactments previously passed in the United Kingdom. As to how far law in force in England prior to 25th July, 1828, applies in New South Wales, reference may be made to Webb's "Imperial Law." As to how far English statutes have been adopted by, or embodied in, local legislation, reference may be made to Curlewis' "Tables of Statutes."

3. In cases where local statutes are expressly prescribed as subjects for examination, the examination will be confined, so far as possible, to the general tenor and essential or more important provisions of the statutes referred to; or, in other words, to such matters as would find a place in a student's text-book. The English text-books will serve, to some extent, as a guide in this matter.

4. Candidates are reminded that the State laws on some of the subjects included in these examinations are liable to be superseded by Federal legislation; whilst on other subjects the existing Acts may be displaced by Consolidated Acts. Candidates are further reminded that they are liable to be examined in any Acts or Rules relating to the subjects of these examinations passed or made by either the State or the Federal Parliament more than six calendar months prior to the date at which such examinations may be held.

5. Candidates are also advised, prior to entering on their studies for the final examination, to make themselves acquainted with the general tenor of both the Interpretation Act, 1897 (New South Wales), and the Acts Interpretation Act, 1901 (Commonwealth); whilst they are also reminded that the interpretation of Imperial statutes, applicable in either State or Commonwealth, is governed by the Interpretation Act, 1889 (Imperial).

6. Where chapters, sections, or pages are referred to, the reference is to be deemed "inclusive," unless otherwise expressed.

See prefatory note to this Schedule.

RULES RELATING TO SOLICITORS.

14. There shall be kept in the office of the Prothonotary a book, to be called the Register of Solicitors, which shall be open for inspection by any person during office-hours.

15. (Substituted 31 October, 1941.) Every Solicitor, within one month after his admission or a change of his office address, and also in the month of October in every year, or at such other time as a Judge may in any case order, shall cause to be entered in the said Register (or to be filed with the Prothonotary, who shall cause it to be so entered forthwith) a memorandum, under his hand, or the hand of such other person as the Prothonotary shall approve, of the address of his office, and if he does not practise in Sydney, or within one mile thereof, he shall add the name of his Sydney agent, who shall be a Solicitor practising in Sydney: Provided that it shall not be necessary for a solicitor soldier within the meaning of the Legal Practitioners (War Service) Amendment Act, 1940, to register an office during such part of his period of war service, as defined by that Act, as he shall not be practising either in person or by delegate appointed pursuant to the provisions of section four of that Act.

15A. Any Solicitor may, in addition to his Registered Office, have a Branch Office or Offices, provided that he or some other Solicitor entitled to practise in New South Wales, is in charge of each such Branch Office and attends there upon each day on which such office is open.

15B. If any Solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, resident in an adjoining State shall have an Office in New South Wales, he, or some other Solicitor entitled to practise in New South Wales, shall be in charge of such office, and attend there regularly during the hours such office is open.

16. For the purpose of registering the address of his office, or any change thereof, a Solicitor shall obtain a form of registration from the Prothonotary, and after completing the same shall cause it to be filed in the Prothonotary's Office when a fee of 1s. 6d. shall be paid thereon.

17. In like manner, whenever the Sydney agent of any Solicitor, or the office of any Solicitor, is changed, such Solicitor shall cause a memorandum of the name of his new agent, or of his new office to be entered in the said Register, or to be filed with the Prothonotary, who shall cause it to be so entered forthwith.

17A. No Solicitor who has failed to register his office as required by these Rules shall be allowed to practise until he has so registered his office unless he satisfies a Judge that there is good reason for his failure.

17B. If any Solicitor has for a period of ten days from the date of the delivery at his registered office of any communication from the Incorporated Law Institute relating to any complaint having reference to the conduct of any Solicitor neglected to reply to such communication, such neglect may be reported by the Institute to the Prothonotary. The Prothonotary shall thereupon cause to be delivered at such Solicitor's registered office a notice calling upon him to reply to the Institute's communication forthwith. If such Solicitor neglects for a period of seven days from the delivery of such notice at his registered office to reply to the Prothonotary or to comply with this notice, he shall, unless a reasonable explanation for such non-compliance is furnished by him to the Prothonotary, be deemed to have failed to have registered his office as required by these rules.

18. Where either party is represented by a Solicitor, all process, pleadings, notices, summonses, orders, rules, and other proceedings which by any Rule or practice of the Court are required or allowed to be delivered to or served upon such party shall be delivered to or served upon his Solicitor; and every matter or thing which by any such Rule or practice is required or allowed to be done by such party may be done by his Solicitor: Provided that this Rule shall not apply in any case where there is anything in the context or the nature of the case to show that the party himself was intended.

19. Where either party has sued or appeared in person, he shall not afterwards be deemed to be represented by a Solicitor for the purpose of delivery or service within the last-preceding Rule, unless and until he has given to the opposite party notice by a Solicitor that such Solicitor is authorised to act as his Solicitor.

20. No Solicitor shall be changed, nor shall a party who has been represented by a Solicitor be allowed to proceed in person, without the order of a Judge.*

21. No Solicitor shall act in any cause, proceeding, or matter in any jurisdiction of the Court for or on behalf of more than one party, unless the parties for whom he acts are in the same interest; and the members of a firm shall, for the purposes of this Rule, be deemed one person.

22. (Substituted 31 October, 1941.) A Solicitor who has not practised for two years continuously shall not commence nor resume the practice of his profession without first obtaining an order from the Court: Provided that the period of war service as defined by the Legal Practitioners (War Service) Amendment Act, 1940, of a solicitor soldier within the meaning of that Act shall not count in the computation of the period of two years mentioned in this rule. Any person acting in contravention of this rule may be struck off the roll of solicitors.

23. Three months' notice of intention to apply for such order must be given to the Secretary to the Solicitors Admission Board and also to the Secretary to the Incorporated Law Institute.

24. At the time of giving such notice, the applicant must also file an affidavit containing a statement of his place or places of abode since he ceased to practise in New South Wales, and showing how he has been employed in the meantime, and also that he has not done or committed any act or thing which would cause his name to be struck off the Roll of Solicitors.

25. No Solicitor or Certificated Conveyancer shall, without the leave of the Court, after having had notice of any such conviction as is hereinafter referred to employ or continue to employ as a clerk, assistant, or writer, or in any other capacity, in or about his business as a Solicitor or Certificated Conveyancer, any person who has been convicted of any indictable offence.

26. No Solicitor or Certificated Conveyancer shall, without the leave of the Court, after having had notice of any such striking off the Roll or suspension as is hereinafter referred to, employ or continue to employ, as a clerk, assistant, or writer, or in any other capacity, in or about his business as a Solicitor or Certificated Conveyancer, any person who has by any court in the British Dominions been struck off the Roll of Barristers, Solicitors, Attorneys, Proctors, Writers to the Signet, Law Agents, persons otherwise entitled to practise before such Court, or Conveyancers of such Court, or suspended by any such Court from practising or acting as such, so long as any such person remains so struck off the Roll or suspended.

27C. Any affidavit of the fitness of an applicant, who is applying for an order restoring his name to the Roll of Solicitors, or allowing him to resume practice, must show that the deponent (1) is conversant with the evidence and facts upon which the order was made striking the name of such applicant off the Roll of Solicitors or suspending him from practice, or (2) has read the affidavits and evidence upon which such last-mentioned order was made.

27D. (1) (Substituted 31 October, 1941.) Where a solicitor or conveyancer in the course of his practice becomes aware of facts or circumstances which give rise in his mind to a reasonable suspicion that the trust funds of some other solicitor or conveyancer (not being his client) are not in order, it shall be his duty to put the facts upon affidavit entitled in the matter of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1898-1936, and of this rule, and in the matter of the solicitor or conveyancer in question. Such affidavit shall be filed (without fee) in the office of the Prothonotary, and at the same time two copies of the affidavit shall be lodged with the Prothonotary.

(2) The Prothonotary, upon receipt of the copies of such affidavits may either bring the matter before the Court forthwith or forward the copies of such affidavit to the Council of the Incorporated Law Institute for such inquiry and action, if any, as it shall deem fit. If the Council considers that the case calls for inquiry, it shall call upon the solicitor or conveyancer whose trust funds are in question for an explanation of the matter, and may also call upon him within a time named by it to produce for inspection, as it may require, any books, papers, or documents it considers necessary for the purpose of elucidating the matter in question, and of showing the condition of his trust account.

503. (1) There shall be kept in the Office of the Prothonotary a book to be called the Register of Solicitors' Practices, which shall be open for inspection by any person during office hours.

(3) Every Solicitor who has succeeded or who shall succeed to the practice of another Solicitor shall forthwith cause to be entered in the said Register a memorandum of the names of the Solicitors who are parties to the transaction.

(4) Where any Solicitors enter into partnership, they and each of them shall cause a memorandum setting out the names of the members of the partnership to be entered in the said Register.

(5) When any change occurs in a firm of Solicitors carrying on business in partnership, the Solicitors affected by such change shall cause a memorandum setting out how they intend to carry on business in future to be entered in the said Register.

SOLICITOR SOLDIERS' DELEGATION RULES.

The thirteenth day of March, 1941.

The following rules, which may be cited as the "Solicitor Soldiers' Delegation Rules," are made pursuant to section 4 (1) (f) of the Legal Practitioners (War Service) Amendment Act, 1940:—

(5) Before registering a delegation the Prothonotary shall satisfy himself that the person making the delegation is a solicitor soldier within the meaning of the Act. For this purpose the person making the delegation by a clause in the delegation or by statutory declaration thereto annexed shall state precisely the obligations as to service which he claims bring him within the definition in the Act. In the case of delegations made before the date of these rules the delegate shall obtain from a service officer of senior rank a certificate setting forth facts establishing that the person making the delegation was a solicitor soldier and shall file the same or a copy thereof verified by affidavit or statutory declaration.

(6) Where a delegate carries on the solicitor soldier's practice away from what was at the time of the delegation the solicitor soldier's office, the delegate shall display on his own office the name of the solicitor soldier with at least equal prominence to that given to the name of the delegate.

(7) Where a delegate carries on the solicitor soldier's practice in an office which was at the time of the delegation the office of the solicitor soldier, the delegate shall maintain the name of the solicitor soldier in the same form in which it appeared at the time of the delegation and shall not add his own name unless expressly authorised by the instrument of delegation.

(a) The appellant, unless a Judge otherwise orders or allows further time, shall within 14 days after the filing of the notice of appeal file and, lodge in the Prothonotary's Office three printed or roneoed copies of the appeal book comprising the notice of appeal, the evidence, the exhibits, the order or decision appealed from, and any reasons given for the same, and shall, within the like time, also serve four such copies upon the board and one such copy upon the person preferring the complaint or charge.

(b) Such printed copies shall be printed upon cream white foolscap folio paper in 11 point type, No. 12 point body, length of type line including numerical side note five inches, sixty lines to a page, numerals every ten lines, with an inner margin an inch wide and outer margin two inches and a quarter wide.

(c) Such roneoed copies shall be roneoed upon one side of cream white foolscap paper, double spaced lines, with an inner margin an inch wide and an outer margin two and a quarter inches wide, every fifth line to be numbered in the outer margin.

6. On such copies being filed and lodged and an affidavit of the service thereof being filed in the Prothonotary's Office, the appeal shall be set down for hearing.

7. In every case in which service of any document shall be directed by these rules, such service shall, unless otherwise provided, or unless a Judge shall otherwise order, be effected by serving the same personally upon the person required to be served.

8. (a) The Court shall in all cases have full discretionary power to receive further evidence upon questions of fact, such evidence to be either by oral examination in Court, by affidavit or by deposition taken before a Commissioner.

(b) Such further evidence may be given without special leave in any case as to matters which have occurred after the date of the order or decision from which the appeal is brought; in all other cases such further evidence shall be admitted on special grounds only, and not without special leave.

9. On the hearing of every such appeal, each party may respectively appear either in person or by solicitor or counsel. Where the board appears in person, such appearance shall be by the member presiding at the meeting at which was made the decision or order against which the appeal is brought.

10. The Court shall have power to make such order as to the whole or any part of the costs of the appeal and of the hearing by the Board or disciplinary tribunal as to the Court may seem just, and to assess the whole or any part of such costs either with or without the consent of any party; but no order shall be made for the payment of any costs by the board to any other party unless the Court shall be of opinion that the board was in the matter in question actuated by malicious or improper motives.

11. All interlocutory applications shall be made to a Judge in Chambers on summons or motion supported by affidavit, and may be made ex parte unless such Judge shall otherwise order. Orders made by a Judge in Chambers shall be signed by him personally. The costs of every such application shall be in the discretion of such Judge, who shall have power to make such order as to the whole or any part of such costs as to him may seem just, and to assess the whole or any part of such costs, either with or without the consent of any party: Provided that no order shall be made by such Judge for the payment by the board to any other party of any costs of any such interlocutory proceeding unless such Judge shall be of opinion that the board was, in the matter in question, actuated by malicious or improper motives.

12. In every case in which any costs are ordered to be paid by one party to another party, such costs, unless assessed as aforesaid, shall be taxed and certified by the Prothonotary; provided that the Court or a Judge or the Prothonotary shall have power to appoint such other officer as the Court or such Judge or the Prothonotary shall think fit to tax and certify the same.

13. All summonses, notices of motion, affidavits, and other documents (other than exhibits) used or intended to be used on any application to the Court or a Judge shall be intituled in the same manner as the notice of appeal.

14. The decrees and orders of the Court shall be signed by the Prothonotary and be under the appropriate office seal and forwarded to the Secretary.

15. The Court fees to be demanded and paid in respect of proceedings and matters under these rules shall be the same as those demanded from and paid by parties in similar matters in the Supreme Court.

16. Non-compliance with any of these rules shall not render any proceedings void unless the Court or a Judge so directs, but such proceedings may be set aside, either wholly or in part, as irregular, or amended or otherwise dealt with, in such manner and upon such terms (if any) as appear to be just.

SOLICITORS ADMISSION RULES.

Rules prior to 24th October, 1939, are incorporated in "The Supreme Court Practice" (3rd edition).

The rules relating to the admission of solicitors, comprised in the General Rules of the 22nd December, 1902 and amendments thereto, were on the 13th December, 1939, amended or altered as follows:—

(a) By adding the following definitions to Rule 427—

"Defence service" includes active service, war service, training during time of war in the Citizen Forces, and duties connected with the present war.

"Active service," "war service," and "training during time of war in the Citizen Forces" shall be interpreted in accordance with the Acts of the Parliament of the Commonwealth of Australia relating to defence.

(b) By adding the following further proviso to Rule 443—

Provided also that examinations may be held at the New England University College at Armidale in such terms as the Board may deem convenient.

(c) By adding the following paragraph to Rule 459—

The Judges may give such permission and upon such conditions, if any, as they think fit, if they are satisfied that there is sufficient reason for so doing, whether on the ground of defence service or otherwise.

(d) By rescinding the following rules or parts of rules—

The proviso to clause (c) of Rule 428, Rules 428A, 451B, 453A, 454 (2), (3) and (4), 455C, 455D, and 492A.

(e) By rescinding Rules 436 (b), 438, 438A, 439, 455A, 455B, 457, 473A and 491, and substituting the following rules in their respective places—

436 (b). A certificate from the said Registrar of his having been admitted to the status of a student in the Faculty of Law; or

438. (1) A solicitor may have two articulated clerks serving under articles at the same time.

(2) The Court may, if it sees fit, authorise any solicitor to have three articulated clerks serving under articles at the same time if one of such clerks (a) was previously articulated to a solicitor who has died or ceased to practise; or (b) is or has been engaged in defence service.

438A. If for any reason articles of clerkship are terminated before the expiry of the term thereof the clerk may with the permission of the Court complete the term by entering into supplementary articles for such period as the Court shall think fit.

439. All articles (including supplementary articles) of clerkship and assignments thereof shall be filed in the Court within one month from the date of execution thereof.

455A. (1) Any article clerk who satisfies the Board that he has been or may be prevented by defence service from presenting himself for any examination in law under these rules at the time appointed thereunder, or that he intends on passing any such examination to enlist for active service, may, with the leave of the Board, present himself for a special examination at such time or for a subsequent examination after such interval as the Board may appoint or determine.

(2) The Board may require any applicant for any special examination to pay an additional fee not exceeding £5.

(3) The special first law examination shall be conducted by the President and the first law examiner. Any other special examination shall be conducted by the President and such other member or members of the Board as the Board may appoint for the purpose. The result of any special examination shall be reported to the Board at its next meeting.

455B. (Substituted 29 October, 1941.) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules, any article clerk who satisfies the Board that he has theretofore been, then is, or will thereafter be engaged in defence service may present himself for any of the examinations under these rules at such times, and may take the sections of the final examination in such order, as the Board, if it thinks fit to vary in the case of such article clerk the times or order prescribed by these rules, may appoint or determine.

457. Where these rules provide that an article clerk may present himself for examination after the lapse of a specified time from first presenting himself for some other examination the provision shall be subject to his having passed such other examination.

Proviso to Rule 457 (added 12 November, 1942).—

Provided that while Rule 448A remains in force the Board may in relation to any particular examination exempt from the operation of this Rule any article clerk whose answers in such other examination are, in the opinion of the Board, sufficiently meritorious to warrant such exemption.

473A. Any candidate desirous of proceeding to examination at one of the places in the country specified in Rule 448 shall pay an additional fee of one guinea for each paper which he intends to take at such examination.

491. In the case of any article clerk the Court may, if satisfied there is sufficient reason for so doing, whether on the ground of defence service or otherwise, relax or dispense with any of these rules, and may make such order as in the opinion of the Court the circumstances require.

(f) By rescinding Rule 451A and re-promulgating such rule as of the date hereof without other alteration.

Rules 428 and 477 of the rules relating to the admission of Solicitors were on the 19th November, 1941, amended or altered as follows:—

By substituting for the words which precede the subclauses of Rule 428 the words: "The following persons only shall be eligible for admission as Solicitors, namely British subjects who are:—"

By adding the following words to Rule 477 at the end thereof: "Every such person shall also lodge with the Secretary a statutory declaration that he is a British subject, annexing thereto a certified copy of his birth certificate or certificate of naturalization, or other evidence of his British nationality."

429. (Substituted 18 Feb., 1942.) The Board of Examiners shall consist of three Barristers and three Solicitors, to be annually appointed by the Judges, and a President; provided that the Judges may at any time and for such period as they think fit, appoint a Deputy-President, who during his term of office shall also be a member of the Board, and may perform any of the duties of the President in his absence or with his consent, or during any vacancy in the office of President.

441. (1) (Substituted 29 July, 1942.) Every articulated clerk may, with the consent of the solicitor to whom he has been articulated and after serving such solicitor for a period of at least six months, without assignment serve with the Sydney agent of such solicitor any part of the remainder of the term of his articles not exceeding one year.

448A. (Added 12 November, 1942.) Notwithstanding anything in these Rules, the Board shall not be bound to hold any examination in the first or third terms of 1943 or any subsequent year. Any articulated clerk who would have been entitled to present himself for an examination in the first term of 1943 may present himself for that examination in the second term of 1943 and also for the examination which (if he had passed in the first term of 1943) he would have been next entitled to take.

462. (Substituted 18 February, 1942.) Every articulated clerk desirous of proceeding to any examination under these Rules shall give notice to the Secretary fourteen days at least before the commencement of the term in which such examination is to be held; provided that the Secretary, if satisfied that an articulated clerk has good reason for being late, may accept any such notice within three days of the last day prescribed for giving such notice upon payment to the Secretary of an additional fee of ten shillings; and provided further that the Secretary, if satisfied that failure to give notice in time was occasioned by defence service and that notwithstanding the lateness of notice it is practicable to admit the articulated clerk to examination, may accept any such notice without such additional fee at any time prior to the examination.

478. (Substituted 11 August, 1941.) Every such person shall also cause notice of his intended application to be three several times during such term published in one Sydney daily newspaper.

480A. (21 March, 1940). (1) Where the applicant has been prevented by defence service from serving the full term of his articles without a break, the Board may regard defence service for a period not exceeding four months in each year of the articles as service under articles.

(2) Where a break in service under articles occurs through the death of a master solicitor or through any other cause which the Board deems sufficient, the Board may regard service under articles as being continuous notwithstanding such break, provided that it does not exceed twenty-eight days.
