Upon the signature of the order, the applicant shall complete the second of the said engrossments so that the same shall be a copy of the order as signed by the Judge and shall thereupon file such copy in the Equity Office.

(2) In all cases in which the order of adoption is made in respect of a child born in any other State of the Commonwealth of Australia or in any territory of the Commonwealth of Australia and where the Minister has made arrangements with the Minister administering any law relating to the adoption of children in such other State or territory (hereinafter called "the corresponding Minister") pursuant to section

172A (1) of the Child Welfare Act, 1939, as amended by the Child Welfare (Amendment) Act, 1941, the Deputy Registrar or Chief Clerk in Equity shall complete the third of the said engrossments so that the same shall be a copy of the order as signed by the Judge and shall endorse thereon his Certificate that the same is correct and shall forthwith transmit the said third engrossment so completed and certified as aforesaid to the Minister for transmission to the corresponding Minister.

15. COSTS RULES.

50. (Substituted 24th July, 1946) (1) The following principles shall be applied in the taxation of costs :—

- (a) On every taxation the taxing officer shall allow all such costs, charges and expenses as appear to him to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or for defending the rights of any party.
- (b) Save upon taxation to ascertain the costs payable to a solicitor by his client, no costs shall be allowed which appear to the taxing officer to have been incurred or increased through negligence or mistake or through overcaution, or by the payment of special fees to counsel, or of special charges or expenses to witnesses or other persons or by other unusual expenses; but upon such a taxation such costs, unless due to the solicitor's default, may be allowed against the client if authorised by him after the solicitor has warned him that they go, or may be held to go, beyond the necessities of the occasion, and also, if the client may expect to recover his costs from another party or a fund, that the costs in question will not, or may not, be allowed to him against the other party or fund.

(2) Provisions in statutes, rules, judgments or orders that costs are to be taxed as between party and party, or as between solicitor and client, shall not of themselves be deemed to prevent the application of these principles.

83. (Substituted 22 July, 1949, as from 1 October, 1949.)—A fee to counsel for a view shall be allowed where such view was necessary or proper for the attainment of justice but not for more than one counsel unless certified by the judge before whom the cause was tried.

SOLICITOR SOLDIERS' DELEGATION RULES.

The thirteenth day of March, 1941.

The following rules, which may be cited as the "Solicitor Soldiers' Delegation Rules," are made pursuant to section 4 (1) (f) of the Legal Practitioners (War Service) Amendment Act, 1940:—

(1) In these rules, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires or indicates:—

"The Act" means the Legal Practitioners (War Service) Amendment Act, 1940.

"Instrument" means an instrument of delegation, revocation of delegation, or resignation of office as delegate under section 4 of the Act.

(2) The Prothonotary shall cause every instrument or verified copy thereof filed in his office under the provisions of the Act to be numbered and shall keep a book in his office in which he shall cause to be entered the name of the solicitor soldier, the name of the delegate, the date of the instrument, the nature of the instrument, the date of filing, the date of determination, and any other particulars that to the Prothonotary shall seem necessary or desirable.

(3) Where it is proposed to file a copy of an instrument it shall be verified by the affidavit or statutory declaration of the delegate except in the case of a revocation of delegation when it shall be similarly verified by the solicitor soldier.

(4) Where the instrument of delegation has not been executed by the delegate, his consent in writing to act in accordance therewith shall be endorsed thereon, or other satisfactory evidence of such consent furnished to the Prothonotary.

(5) Before registering a delegation the Prothonotary shall satisfy himself that the person making the delegation is a solicitor soldier within the meaning of the Act. For this purpose the person making the delegation by a clause in the delegation or by statutory declaration thereto annexed shall state precisely the obligations as to service which he claims bring him within the definition in the Act. In the case of delegations made before the date of these rules the delegate shall obtain from a service officer of senior rank a certificate setting forth facts establishing that the person making the delegation was a solicitor soldier and shall file the same or a copy thereof verified by affidavit or statutory declaration.

(6) Where a delegate carries on the solicitor soldier's practice away from what was at the time of the delegation the solicitor soldier's office, the delegate shall display on his own office the name of the solicitor soldier with at least equal prominence to that given to the name of the delegate.

(7) Where a delegate carries on the solicitor soldier's practice in an office which was at the time of the delegation the office of the solicitor soldier, the delegate shall maintain the name of the solicitor soldier in the same form in which it appeared at the time of the delegation and shall not add his own name unless expressly authorised by the instrument of delegation.

THIRD PARTY RULES

(under Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1946).

Tuesday, the second day of November, 1948.

Pursuant to the powers vested in us by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1946, we do order and direct that—

1. A defendant claiming relief against any person under section 3 (1) of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1946 (which person is hereinafter called the third party), shall, after the service upon him of the declaration in any action brought against him, file and serve notice of his claim on the third party in the form prescribed by these rules, with such variations as circumstances may require.

2. The defendant shall, with the prescribed notice, serve a copy of the writ of summons and declaration and any pleading or other document served on him by the plaintiff.

3. The time within which the notice of claim and other documents shall be served upon a third party after service of the declaration upon the defendant shall, according to the residence of the third party, be the time prescribed by Rule 34 of the General Rules of Court for the appearance of a defendant after service of a writ of summons.

4. The defendant shall within eight days of service upon him of the declaration file and serve upon the plaintiff and all parties to the action a copy of the notice of claim intended to be served on the third party, and thereupon all further proceedings in the action shall be stayed until an appearance is entered by the third party or if not entered then until the expiration of the time fixed by these rules for the appearance of such third party.

5. The prescribed notice shall be served in the same manner as provided by law for the service of a writ of summons.

6. The defendant, immediately upon service of the notice of claim upon the third party, shall inform the plaintiff and all other parties to the action in writing that service of the notice of claim has been effected and the date upon which the same was made.

7. The time for appearance by a third party after service of the prescribed notice shall be as provided by Rule 34 of the General Rules of Court for the appearance of a defendant after service of a writ of summons.

8. The third party upon entering an appearance shall forthwith serve the plaintiff and all other parties to the action with notice thereof.

9. (a) After such appearance has been entered and within the time hereinbefore prescribed for so doing the defendant shall file and serve upon the third party a formal statement of all essential allegations of his claim against the third party in the like manner and form of the declaration of a plaintiff's case, which will be known as "the defendant's declaration of third party claim."

(b) The defendant shall at the same time serve a copy of such declaration upon the plaintiff and all other parties to the action.

10. After service upon the third party of such declaration of third party claim the third party may take any step with respect thereto as if the same was a declaration served upon the third party by a plaintiff including any plea, application or objection thereto as may be taken by any defendant in accordance with the practice of the court. Thereafter the pleadings in such action shall, as between the defendant and such third party, continue as in the case of any action at law until issue has been joined. On and after the service of the defendant's declaration of third party claim as hereinbefore prescribed the pleadings shall continue as between the plaintiff and other parties to the action in accordance with the usual practice and procedure prescribed in that behalf until issue has been joined. Upon issue joined between all hereinbefore mentioned parties the plaintiff shall file and serve the several issues so joined in accordance with the usual practice and procedure in an action at law. Thereupon the action shall proceed in like manner as if the third party had been joined as a defendant by the plaintiff as provided by section 2 of the Act and the record shall be amended accordingly.

11. The court or a judge, either at the hearing or upon application in chambers, may make all such orders and give all such directions as may be necessary or expedient for the proper trial of the action and generally in relation to any question arising in the cause or matter or with respect to the parties thereto, including any order as to costs, and any enlargement of time may be ordered, although the application for the same is not made until after the expiration of the time allowed.

Third Party Notice.

To
TAKE NOTICE that this action has been brought by the plaintiff against the defendant. In it the plaintiff claims against the defendant the sum of for damages for negligence as appears by the endorsement on the writ of summons and by the declaration, copies whereof are delivered herewith.

The defendant claims to be entitled to contribution or complete indemnity from you in respect of any sum which the plaintiff may recover herein against him to the extent of such amount as may be found by the court to be just and equitable having regard to your responsibility for such damages on the ground that your breaches of duty contributed to the plaintiff's injury.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that if you wish to dispute the plaintiff's claim against the defendant or the defendant's claim against you, you must cause an appearance to be entered for you within days after the service of this notice upon you. In default of you entering such appearance you will be deemed to admit the plaintiff's claim against the defendant and the defendant's claim against you and your liability to indemnify the defendant or contribute to the extent claimed hereinbefore and the validity of any judgment that may be given in the case and you will be bound by such judgment and such judgment may be enforced against you pursuant to the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1946.
