RULE FOR THE DESPATCH OF BUSINESS FOR 1957.

THE following rules are hereby established for the despatch of business in the Supreme Court during the year 1957.

TERMS, SITTINGS, VACATIONS, ETC.

1. The Terms, Holidays, Vacations, Circuits, and Sittings of the Court shall be those shown in the Law Almanac annexed hereto.

COMMON LAW JURISDICTION.

2. Motions generally may be made on any Monday or Thursday during the sittings of the Full Court either in or out of Term, and on such other days as may be appointed.

Chamber business before a Judge or the Prothonotary will be taken on such days and at such times as may be appointed.

EQUITY JURISDICTION.

3. The Court will sit for the hearing of witness causes in Equity on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, at 10 a.m. Applications for interim injunction or for a receiver, or relating to the liberty of the subject, will be taken on any day at 10 a.m.

All other matters in Equity will be taken on Fridays at 10 a.m., and on other days by direction or leave of a Judge sitting in Equity.

COMPANY MATTERS.

Company matters will be taken on Monday mornings or at such other times as the Court shall direct.

LUNACY JURISDICTION.

4. Matters in Lunacy will be heard on Thursdays at 10 a.m.

PROBATE JURISDICTION.

5. Summonses and motions will be taken by the Probate Judge on Mondays at 10 a.m., or at such other times as he shall appoint. All other Probate matters will be taken by the Probate Judge at such times as he shall appoint.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES JURISDICTION.

6. Causes will be heard at such times as may be directed by the Judge.

Matters before the Registrar will be heard from Monday to Friday inclusive each week at 10.15 a.m., except during Vacation when matters will be taken on such days and at such times as may be appointed.

SATURDAYS.

7. There will be no sittings of the Court in Sydney on any Saturday unless the Court or a Judge otherwise directs.

COUNTRY SOLICITORS.

This list contains only the names of those Country Solicitors who are the holders of current practising certificates.

An asterisk denotes a Solicitor holding a practising certificate under Section 69 (b) of the Legal Practitioners Act, 1898-1936.

N.B.—The registration of Solicitors' offices is now effected with the Incorporated Law Institute under the Solicitors' Practices Rules, promulgated 4th June, 1952.

FOREIGN TRIBUNALS EVIDENCE AND SERVICE OF PROCESS RULES.

The Foreign Tribunals Evidence and Service of Process Rules were amended 15 March, 1956, by the omission from Form No. 1 of the following words "and do cause each and every such witness to sign his or her deposition in his, the Examiner's presence", and by the omission from Form No. 2 of the words "and duly signed and completed by him".

GENERAL RULES OF THE COURT.

Order XIV was amended 15 March, 1956, by adding a new rule as follows :—

Transfer of Action from a District Court.

29. Within 10 days of an order being made under Section 46 of the District Courts Act, 1912-1955, that an action be transferred to the Supreme Court, the defendant shall file in the Court office and serve upon the plaintiff a notice of appearance, and the provisions of Order IX shall apply and the action shall proceed as if the action so transferred had been commenced in the Supreme Court.

Order XXII rule 5 was amended 15 March, 1956, by adding after the words "be served" the words "upon the Judge presiding in the Court from which the appeal is brought and".

Order XXVII of the General Rules of the Court were amended 8 May, 1956, by adding a new Rule 1A as follows :—

"1A. Subject to the provisions of any Statute or Rule to the contrary every affidavit shall be sworn by the person having personal knowledge of the facts deposed to, and only where compliance with this rule would cause undue delay or hardship may such facts be stated upon 'information and belief' in which case the deponent shall state the source of his information and the circumstances of 'undue delay' or 'hardship'".

JUROR'S FINES AND ENFORCEMENT RULES.

The Jurors Fines Enforcement Rules were amended 15 March, 1956 by the omission from Form No. 1 of the words "for the No. Causes (or as the case may be)".

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES ACT RULES.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Matrimonial Causes Act 1899-1954, the rules made pursuant to the said powers on the tenth day of June, 1935 (as subsequently amended), were further amended on the 12 October, 1956, as set out hereunder. These amendments are to take effect from the first day of January, 1957.

Rule 13 is rescinded and the following new rule substituted :

13. Where a respondent upon whom service has not been dispensed with is to be served with a citation in one of the other States of Australia, or the Northern Territory, or New Zealand, or Fiji, or any territory or place under the administration of the Commonwealth of Australia, the time limited shall be 30 days and if elsewhere three calendar months.

Provided that in a suit for restitution of conjugal rights the time limited shall be not less than that fixed by the Service and Execution of Process Act, 1901-1950, and the regulations made thereunder.

After Rule 16 the following new rules are inserted :—

16A. In lieu of the procedure set out in Rule 16 personal service of a petition on a Respondent or Co-Respondent may be proved by an affidavit setting out the necessary facts as to the date and place of service and the identity of the person served and by annexing a certified copy of the petition (with a citation indorsed on it) of which service was effected.

16B. Where it is necessary to serve with notice a woman who has been charged in a petition, it shall be sufficient to serve her with a notice in which the particulars of the times and places of the adultery are not set out, but accompanied by a certified copy of the petition.

Rule 17 is rescinded and the following new rule substituted :—

17. Before a petitioner can proceed after having filed a petition, an appearance must have been entered by or on behalf of the respondents, or it must be shown by affidavit filed in Court that they have been duly cited (whether by personal service of the petition and citation, or after leave of the Court obtained, by substituted service thereof or publication of a notice of citation), that the time for appearance has elapsed, that the deponent has searched in the office of the Registrar for an appearance, and that no appearance has been entered. In the case of substituted service a copy of any notice of citation published must be annexed to the affidavit.

In Rule 19 the words " to a citation " are deleted.

Rule 20 is rescinded and the following new rule substituted :—

20. An appearance may be entered at any time, provided that a respondent may not file an answer later than seven days after the expiration of the time limited by the citation or order for substituted service for entering an appearance except as provided by Rule 39.

Rules 28 and 29 are rescinded and the following new rule substituted :—

28. To obtain such order the applicant must lay before the Registrar a case containing a full and true statement of all the material facts, to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, and also an affidavit setting out his or her income or means of living, and, when the applicant is a wife, as far as practicable the income or means of living of her husband. The applicant must, in such affidavit, also state the value of all property owned by him or her after payment of his or her just debts, save and except necessary wearing apparel and household furniture; and when the applicant is a wife, she must also state the value of all property owned by her husband after payment of his just debts, save and except necessary wearing apparel and household furniture.

The following new rule is inserted after Rule 51 :—

51A. (1) At the time of filing draft issues in every suit the Petitioner shall file an affidavit and serve a copy thereof upon any party entitled thereto, setting out all necessary and proper particulars of the matrimonial offence charged in the petition.

(2) In all cases where the opposing party would be entitled to an order for particulars under Rule 51 of any matter alleged in an answer or subsequent pleading, a similar affidavit shall be filed and served within fourteen days after the filing of such pleading.

In Rule 56A sub-rule (a) is rescinded and the following new sub-rules are inserted :—

56A. (a) Every party to a matrimonial cause praying that the Court will exercise its discretion to grant a decree notwithstanding his adultery, shall include in his petition or answer a prayer that the Court will exercise its discretion to grant a decree notwithstanding the adultery of the petitioner during the marriage. He shall also lodge in the Divorce Office a statement (in this rule called a discretion statement) signed by him setting forth particulars of the acts of adultery committed, the conjugal condition of the person with whom adultery is admitted and of the facts which it is material for the Court to know for the purpose of exercising its discretion.

(f) Where it is necessary for a party to disclose adultery committed by him after the filing of his petition (or pleading) he shall file a notice praying that the Court at the hearing will exercise its discretion in his favour notwithstanding that he admits having committed adultery. A copy of this notice shall be served on any other party to the suit setting out that such party may enter an appearance (where necessary) and file an answer or other appropriate pleading within a reasonable time (to be specified) if he so desires. The party filing such notice shall make a notation as to the notice on the petition (or pleading) in the left-hand margin opposite the appropriate prayer. He shall also comply with the requirements as to a discretion statement set out in this rule.

In Rule 63, sub-rule (3) is rescinded.

Rule 65 is rescinded.

Rules 67 and 68 are rescinded and the following new rules substituted :—

67. Twenty-one days before the holding of any Circuit Court the Registrar shall deliver the pleadings and all other papers in all causes for trial before such Court to the Prothonotary.

68. The finding and decree of the Judge, and in cases tried by a jury the finding and verdict of the jury, shall be entered upon the issues tried in Court, and returned to the registrar to be filed by him as of record.

In Rule 69, sub-rule (8) is rescinded and the following new sub-rule substituted :—

69. (8) Before any decree is pronounced upon any such application evidence of the required domicile or residence shall be given to the satisfaction of the Court and also evidence, if necessary, as to any unreasonable delay, condonation, connivance, collusion, misconduct or adultery of the petitioner or other relevant matter. Such evidence, unless otherwise ordered, may be by affidavit.

Rules 80, 83, 84, 84A, 84B and 84C are rescinded and the following new rules substituted :—

80. Within twenty-one days next after the making of the decree or order the appellant or applicant (both of whom are herein referred to as the appellant) shall file in the Court a notice of motion stating the nature of the relief sought and the grounds upon which it is sought, and serve a copy thereof on the other party or parties thereto or his, her or their solicitor. It shall not be necessary to serve a copy upon any respondent party who has not entered an appearance in the suit, but in such case a copy shall be served upon the Crown Solicitor.

83. (1) Within twenty-one days after the filing in Court of the notice of motion the appellant shall give such security and in such manner as the judge or registrar shall direct: Provided that no security shall be required in appeals on the question of costs only. In appeals in suits in which no appearance has been entered, the security to be given shall be by the deposit in Court of the sum of one pound.

(2) If no security be given, when security is necessary the appeal shall not be set down and the same shall be deemed to have lapsed.

84. In appeals from orders made on interlocutory applications when the evidence appears wholly by affidavit, it shall not be necessary to file or serve printed copies, but the appellant shall file, within the time prescribed, two additional copies of each affidavit.

84A. Save as herein or in the Act provided, appeals to the Full Court shall be subject to the general rules of the Court for the time being in force in relation to motions for new trials.

The following new rule is inserted after Rule 147.

147A. A husband to whom costs have been awarded against a co-respondent may proceed to enforce payment of his costs (including the costs he is liable to pay to his wife) against the co-respondent notwithstanding that he has not paid the costs payable to his wife. Provided that no certificate of taxation in respect of such costs shall be issued unless the Solicitor for the husband gives a written undertaking to pay into Court any costs recovered on such certificate.

Rule 157A is rescinded and the following new rule substituted :—

157A. (1) On an application for a writ of attachment for non-compliance with an order for payment of money, there shall be set out on affidavit a clear and precise statement of account. The statement shall include particulars of any amounts paid in reduction of the debt, and the dates of any such payments.

(2) No demand for payment of money shall be necessary where payment is ordered to be made into Court or to a specified person at a specified address. Where necessary any demand may be made by either the Solicitor or the party applying.

(3) In an application for attachment for non-payment of money it shall not be necessary for the party making the application to furnish evidence of the means of the party against whom attachment is sought.

(4) Where a direction or order is made that an application for attachment stand over generally it shall be taken to authorise the applicant to amend the return date of, and to re-serve, the notice of motion, unless such authority is expressly negatived in the direction or order.

The following new rule is inserted after Rule 158 :—

158A. Where a person is arrested under a writ of attachment is brought before the Court, and the Court orders his release, but directs that a new writ may issue upon terms, it may also direct that the costs of the application for the first writ as assessed or as afterwards taxed may be added to the amount to be paid on the new writ.

Rules 191, 192 and 195 are rescinded and the following new rules substituted :—

191. A Solicitor may be changed in accordance with the "general rules of the Court" in force for the time being.

195. The registrar of the Court is to have the custody of all pleadings and other documents now or hereafter to be brought in or filed, and of all entries of orders and decrees made in any matter or suit depending in the Court: and no documents filed as aforesaid are to be disclosed to any persons except the parties to the cause, or their solicitors, without the special order of the Judge or registrar.

Provided that searches may be made with the approval of the Judge or registrar for necessary official purposes by officers of public departments, including those of Child Welfare, Social Services, Repatriation and the Registrar-General.

The following new rule is inserted after Rule 196 :—

196A. Where printed forms have been approved by the registrar he may require any solicitor or party to make use of such forms in any suit or matter.

In Rule 198 sub-rule (4) is rescinded and the following new sub-rule substituted :—

(4) If any party is dissatisfied with the decision of the registrar in any other matter, he may, within twenty-one days from such decision or within such further time as may be allowed by the Court or the registrar, file a request that the matter be referred to the Court and shall within the same time serve upon the other party or parties notice of such request having been filed.

In the "Appendix, Part I (Forms)" form No. 1 is omitted and the following new form substituted:—

No. 1.
